Ratifying the Irish Convention.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The large hall of Cooper's institute was filled to-night on the occasion of a meeting to ratify the action of the convention of Irish societies at Philadelphia, and of the formal organization of the Irish national league of America in this city. The interior was decorated with American and Irish flags. Among those present were Mrs. Parnell, Alexander Sullivan, president of of the Irish national league of America, Thos. Brennan, secretary of the league in Ireland, Col. Frederick A. Conkling, John Devoy, Patrick J. Sheridan, Dr. Wm. B. Wallace and others. President Alexander Sullivan urged the Irish in America to work for the objects in view. Members of patriotic, benevolent and other organizations would find the platform of the league broad enough for all to stand on. They need not abandon their own special work nor permit it to be interfered with. They need only to enlarge their work by embracing that of the league. Brennan and others also spoke. A resolution was adopted endorsing the action of the Philadelphia convention, pledging support to the national league, urging the Irish to use all their influence to diminish the consumption of articles of English manufacture in this country.

Fifth Virginia at Niagara Falls.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., May 21.—[Special.]—The Fifth Virginia confederate veterans arrived at Niagara Falls to-day. They left Staunton, Virginia, Saturday at 1 P. M. There are eighty-three veterans, seventy prominent citizens, and a number of ladies on the excursion. Notwithstanding a drenching rain all day they were given cheers and hearty greetings by the large crowds at all the stations along the line of the road. The veterans were met by Colonel Brown, of the Twenty-Seventh New York, at a way station, who accompanied them to the falls, where to-morrow they will join in the annual reunion of the Twenty-Eighth, as their guests. The Twenty-Eighth's battle flag, captured from them at the battle field of Cedar Mountain, in August, 1862, at which time the Fifth Virginia killed, wounded or captured two-thirds of the Twenty Eighth regiment, will be returned with appropriate ceremonies. This is the first time in the United States since the rebellion that such a reunion of federals and confederates has occurred.

The Count de Chambord's Health.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—The New York Herald's special gives an account of a correspondent interviewing Count de Chambord's secretaries. I saw, with surprise, which caused them to laugh, a huge pile of telegrams from England, Germany and America, asking about the health of the count. The secretaries explained that his leg had been sprained weeks ago, causing a rupture of the tendons. Treatment with bandages was resorted to and perfect quiet was recommended. Walking, riding and hunting, in which the prince excels, had to be stopped. This is an important feature of the case. In order to hasten his cure it was decided that the prince should receive nobody till his departure for Frohsdorf, which occurred yesterday. It was this fact which caused the reports that his illness was dangerous. Barring the accident to his leg the health of the prince is excellent. Just as I was opening the door the prince said: "Mind and tell our friends that I am more alive than ever."

Reports Unfounded.

DENVER, Col., May 21.—The El Paso Times received the following from its special correspondent, dated Chihuahua, 11 A. M. to-day: There is no truth in the report of the killing of five men near Sanz station, on the Mexican Central, as reported here on Saturday. No news of military movements in the Sierras has been received at headquarters. General Fuero has not arrived as yet, but is expected here in two or three days. Great discontent is expressed by both Mexicans and Americans here at the circulation of the unfounded reports as to the killing by Indians. Travel is perfectly safe.

Plan for Reorganization.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The plan adopted by the harmony committee for the reorganization of the republican party in this city consists of a yearly enrollment of the republican voters of the city under the general direction of a committee of enrolling officers. In each assembly district there will be two members of the existing organizations, two who are not members and one man a resident of the district.

Can Read Butler like a Book.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—Gen. Longstreet is here, and being interviewed, said: "The southern negroes are intelligent and tricky. They can read Butler like a book. We have generally put aside politics in Georgia, and want northern capital. Tilden is favorably spoken of for president, but our people would prefer some man not yet mentioned."

San Franciscans in New York.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—San Franciscans at Hotels: H. P. Livermore, J. J. Maloney, F. D. Marks, S. Peiser, E. H. Reade, P. Richter, J. H. Robinson, S. B. Bigmley, M. Trans, E. H. Willson, J. Franklin, Mrs. G. E. Fritch, Miss L. Fritch, W. Hobart, E. Dye Higgins, W. H. Rose, J. Rosenberg, Mrs. N. W. Waddell.

Denver's Mineral Show.

DENVER, May 21.—The mineral exhibit of the Denver exposition grows in magnitude every day. Every mineral producing state west of the Mississippi river will be represented by largely-increased exhibits over last year. The counties in Colorado, under state law, have thus far appropriated $30,000 for the mineral collection.

The Last Work.

MILWAUKEE, May 21.—Delegates to the Y. M. C. A. international convention held a closing conference to-day, at the residence of J. H. Vandyke, to discuss plans for erecting a building for the association in this city. Half of the delegates have already gone from the city, and the others leave to-morrow.

Corner Stone Laid.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 21—[Special.]—Yesterday the Masonic fraternity laid the corner stone of the Rose orphans' home, named after its founder, Chauncey Rose. When completed it will be one of the handsomest buildings in the city. Its endowment fund is $150,000.

George Alfred Townsend Chastised.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—The World says: Duncan Harrison, brother of Maude Harrison, the actress, pommelled George Alfred Townsend, the well-known correspondent, last night uptown, for an alleged insulting letter about Maude.

Wife of the President of Guatemala.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—Senora Frances Col Aparico De Barrios, wife of the president of Guatemala, sailed on the steamer Para yesterday, after a sojourn of one year in this city, where she has been educating her four children.

Tabor Receives a Scoring.

DENVER, May 21.—This morning, in the case of Wm. H. Bush, charged by ex Senator Tabor with embezzling $2000, the jury was out five minutes and returned a verdict of not guilty. Tabor received a terrible scoring from Bush's lawyers.

Returned to Work.

PITTSBURG, May 21.—Nearly all the railroad coal miners resumed to-day, at the three cents mining rate, pending a settlement of the wages question by the operators' and miners' trades tribunal. About 4000 returned to work.

Hearing Reports.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 21—The Evangelical Lutheran Synod to-day was occupied in receiving and hearing reports. The secretary's report showed increased business, and receipts in excess of former years.

BOSTON, May 21.—[Special.]—Neil Dow, of Portland, Maine, of prohibition fame, is very ill with lung trouble, at the Parker house.

CRIMINAL.

SERIES OF BLOODY DEATHS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21.—The Times-Democrat's Louisiana special says: Yesterday Guion and Pierce and William Gurley were murdered in the southern part of St. Helena parish. Guion's parents lived here last year, and were murdered some three months ago in Livingston parish. Suspicion pointed to James and William Gurley as the assassins. Pierce and Guion resolved to avenge their father's death. About a month after the first murder James Gurley was murdered. Last week the [illegible] were at Greensburg, St. Helena parish, and learning that they would probably be arrested [illegible], the slayers of James Gurley left town and remained at a house in the country, starting yesterday for home in Livingston parish. USEFUL INVENTION OF A SAN FRANCISCAN.

Union Pacific Men Ousted—The Grain Situation—Found Dead in his Bed—San Francisco Notes.

Believes Stanford was Misquoted.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—[Special.]—A. N. Towne, general manager, referring to a dispatch from New York, published this afternoon, which quotes Gov. Stanford as saying that the eastern carrying business from New Orleans to Europe, in connection with the Southern Pacific road, will on their return trip bring French and Italian immigrants at $25 each, instead of $66, the former rate, he says it is undoubtedly a mistake. He believed, at the best, that Gov. Stanford had been misquoted, and the tenor of the statement must have been founded on a supposition that the eastward carrying business and shipments to Europe were sufficiently remunerative to enable the company to bring immigrants free on the return trips. The railroad company has borne one-quarter of the expense of maintaining the immigration association, operated under the auspices of the board of trade, and is desirous of doing all in its power toward bringing desirable immigration into the state; but he does not believe any reduction on the present fares is talked of, nor that the road could afford to carry them at a lower figure.

Southern Pacific Enterprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Accounts received show that the immigration bureau established by the Central Pacific at Chicago is more important than at first supposed. In connection with it agencies have been established in London, Bordeaux, Berlin and Gottenburg, and under direction of its powerful organization the greatest efforts will be made to bring by its two routes the largest number at the cheapest rates possible.

Freight that left New York the 5th, via New Orleans, was ready for delivery to-day at noon. The Southern Pacific promise to keep this up. The train which came in to-day consisted of twenty-four cars. The time of freight by the Central Pacific in the past has averaged all the way from twenty-five to forty days. Steamers leave New York for New Orleans twice a week, and it is believed that it will soon be necessary for a dispatch steamer daily.

An Electrical Invention.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—[Special.]—Leon Stiles of this city has taken out a patent for an electrical safety contrivance by which two engines approaching each other on the same track are warned of their danger in time to avert a collision. It consists of an insulated wire extending along the inner concavity of the rails on both sides of the track, with a break at every station. Each engine will carry a dynamo, from which is suspended a metallic brush, always in contact with the wire, so that the engines on passing a station come in contact with the same set of wires, forming a complete electrical current, and sounding an alarm bell on each engine.

Immigration Scheme.

[Special.]—The Call will publish to-morrow an exhaustive review of the plan proposed by the Central and Southern Pacific railroad to induce immigration into the state. Immigration bureaus have been established at Chicago, London, Bordeaux, Berlin and Gottenburg, and representatives have been sent out with complete maps showing the location of government lands and general features of the soil. The plan is the result of careful consideration of the immigration problem, and the expense of maintaining it will be borne by the railroads.

Death of Otis H. Beebe.

[Special.]—Otis H. Beebe, residing in Portland and employed in the office of the Northern Pacific, died at the Occidental hotel last night. He came here a few weeks ago for the benefit of his health, and went to Gilroy. He grew worse, and his sister, who accompanied him, was advised to return to Portland. They left Gilroy Saturday, and intended leaving for the north the following day. He was in the last stages of consumption. The body was shipped on the Oregon.

Ordered to Alaska.

Captain Healy, of the revenue cutter Corwin, has received orders to proceed to Alaska, to take charge of that station during the fishing season. He is instructed to obtain all possible information concerning Alaska matters in general. From Commander Glass, who was in command of the Wachusett, and who established martial law in the Harrisburg mines. It is thought the Adams, now in Alaska, will be recalled.

Counterfeit Five Dollar Pieces.

Colonel Finnegass, of the United States secret service, has received information from James J. Brooke, chief of the secret service division, that a new counterfeit five dollar coin has made its appearance, purporting to be a coin struck in 1883, very heavily plated, but 44½ grains light. The impression is that it was struck from original dies prepared for the purpose.

Cable Road Accident.

Another fatal accident happened on the Geary street cable road last night, whereby a Chinaman was killed. The engineer was arrested, charged with manslaughter, but it is stated it will be shown that no blame can be attached to him.

Large Sailing Vessel.

The Pinmore, the largest sailing vessel ever constructed, is now in port. She is a four-masted steel ship, 3[illegible]0 feet long, and is just now one of the sights, many persons visiting her.

San Francisco Notes.

The O. S. Hurlbut is 200 days from New York for Portland, and grave fears for her safety are entertained.

The thermometer yesterday marked 82 degrees in the shade. The trade winds are being anxiously looked for.

The British bark Chin Ge, recently condemned here, was towed over to Kershaw's point, and the hull burned last night for the iron.

Wild Flower, Hinda, Rosa, and six other horses from Leland Stanford's Palo Alto stables were shipped east to-day, in a special car, in care of Charles Martin.

The new iron steamer Mariposa, Cramps built Philadelphia, cleared for this port Friday. She will run between this port and Honolulu. She is owned by the Oceanic Steamship Company.

Newspaper Sale.

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—Jesse Yarnell, sole proprietor of the Los Angeles Daily Times and the Weekly Mirror, has sold his entire interest in these journals to A. W. Francisco, the well known veteran and successful newspaper man of Ohio, formerly manager of the Cincinnati Times and the Ohio State Journal. It is learned that the sale was for cash, on a valuation of $30,000 for the whole concern. The firm is now composed of A. W. Francisco, T. J. Caystile, S. J. Mathes and H. S. Otis. Mr. Francisco is expected to arrive here at an early day and take active part in the business of these papers.

Union Pacific Men Ousted.

SALT LAKE, May 21.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Utah and Nevada railway in this city it was discovered that C. W. This is looked upon as a [illegible], forming a new link of narrow gauge road leading to Nevada and California. At present there are [illegible] miles of this road completed and in operation, and it controls bathing resorts on the southern shore of the great Salt lake.

Railroad Notes.

SALT LAKE, May 21.—A company called the Utah Eastern was to-day formed in this city, for the purpose of building a narrow gauge railroad from Salt Lake to Park City, a distance of thirty miles. This road is to be in operation in ninety days, and will open up a rich coal and mineral country tributary to Salt Lake.

It is understood that work will be commenced on the Salt Lake and Western road in a few weeks, and that it will be pushed with great vigor through to San Francisco.

OPIUM SMOKING.

How and Where the Chinese of Chicago Secure Their Supply of the Drug.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Opium dens continue to receive attention from the local press, which has demonstrated that opium smoking exists here and is on the increase. A visit to several retail drug stores revealed the fact that except on rare occasions Chinamen do not apply at the counters for opium. They explain this upon the assumption that their prices are too high, that Chinamen, being as good judges of opium as they, and buying in large quantities, can get as good prices from wholesale houses as the druggists get.

A visit to three or four wholesale houses secured various statements. One did not sell at all to any except they were known to be druggists. Another had

NO CALLS FOR OPIUM BY CHINAMEN.

A third admitted that the firm sold opium to Chinamen, but believed, as the quantities bought were small, that they only supplied a deficiency and that the bulk of the opium used in this city comes direct from San Francisco importers to Chinamen in this city.

Visits to the express office revealed the fact that Chinamen receive a large number of small boxes by express direct from San Francisco from time to time. Physicians who are pretty well informed as to Chinese movements stated that considerable opium came by express in the form of an extract, while much of the same goods was left here by travelling Chinese peddlers.

Opium Smoking in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—A number of opium dens have been discovered here which are presided over by a Chinaman, and which are patronized by white men and women. The Enquirer says: "Right here in this city there is a joint, the proprietor of which declared his intention of admitting only females. Consequently members of other dens who find it necessary to 'hit the pipe' to live, are considerably excited and put out. They say the reason of this action is that the Chinaman is enjoying himself with his visitors to an extent that would not be permitted were they present. It is a small, rickety, one-story frame house, and is owned by Lum Sing. The women who visit the house include the inmates of houses of ill-fame. One of the girls in particular 'hits the pipe' as regularly as she eats. Lum Sing and his attendants are said to enjoy themselves greatly with their patrons. It is not infrequent for them to be seen reclining beside the drowsy and half unconscious smoker, and taking the most indecent liberties with her. Several variety actresses who are fond of the habit also seek this dive. In the city there has been considerable talk lately in regard to one member of the profession in particular whose husband has threatened the Chinaman for his boldness."

A Chinese Doctor Defends his Countrymen.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—Doctor A Wing, a Chinaman, writes a letter to the Times whereof the following is the epitome: "We would like Father B—— to extend his knowledge and that of his people, and educate them to better behavior. My people are insulted continually, and persecuted by those who profess to belong to churches resembling the one on Mott street. Surely the christian brothers in the association might assist in giving correct figures to such questions as these: First—How many Chinese are in prison? Second—How many are beggars? Third—How many throw stones and injure others who labor for their bread as we do? Fourth—How many destroy store windows and insult you by calling you names as you pass quietly along the streets? Fifth—How many do you see drunk or lying about houseless? Sixth—How many keep rum holes? Those cared for in the hospitals are there, nine cases out of ten, from blows received from the idle and vicious of other nationalities, who are so justly (?) prejudiced against us; but when death results from violence, we bury our murdered ones ourselves. When we read police reports every day of accounts of fighting, stabbing and cruelty to women and children, we feel sorry for the priests who have so much to attend to that they cannot have time to spare seeking out the Chinese."

SHIPPING DISASTERS.

A Terrific Storm on Lake Michigan Wrecks a Number of Vessels—Several Lives Lost.

CHICAGO, May 21.—A storm of extraordinary force prevailed on Lake Michigan last night, and a number of sailing vessels bound for this port were wrecked, but the extent of the disaster is only yet partially known. The chief disaster thus far reported is that of the two-masted schooner Jennie Lynn, lumber laden from Muskegon, which capsized while near land, about 5 o'clock this morning. The mate swam ashore and was rescued. John Anderson, Captain L. Peterson, A. Helgeson and a man named Christianson, sailors, were drowned.

The schooner Mary Ellen Cook, Captain Williams, early this morning bore down on the government breakwater, and the breakwater light having either been extinguished by the storm, or through the inability of the light-house keeper to light it, being placed in an exceptionally exposed place, the vessel was driven against the breakwater and afterward carried by the waves completely over the obstruction into the inner harbor, where she soon waterlogged. They succeeded in rescuing the crew, with the exception of a boy, Frank Miller, who in the excitement threw himself overboard and drowned.

The schooner Henry Berger, lumber laden from Ludington, was also driven against the breakwater and wrecked, but the crew were saved.

CHICAGO, May 21—Midnight.—Up to this hour no further loss of life has occurred along the lake shore. A number of vessels have been injured but no serious wreck has been reported. The wind has fallen very materially and the danger is believed to be past, though the waves continue very high. Saturday two men and a boy were out fishing when the storm came up. They were driven toward shore and managed to climb on to the shore at the Fullerton avenue conduit, a few yards from shore, at the north city limits, on Sunday. They were not discovered till to-day, when a portion of the life-saving crew went to their assistance. The surf was so heavy that it was impossible to launch the life-boat, and attempts to rescue were given up till the waves subside, and they will have to pass another night on the crib. They have succeeded in securing shelter and are not liable to suffer much.

DESERTERS DROWNED.

MILWAUKEE, May 21.—Off this port last night six of the crew of the schooner Petrel deserted the captain, and taking a yawl boat attempted to reach the shore, thinking the schooner would founder. They had gone but a short distance when the yawl capsized and three of the crew were drowned. The others clung to the bottom of the boat and were saved this morning.

TWO VESSELS WRECKED.

MILWAUKEE, May 21.—The schooner Lillie E., of Manistee, laden with 180,000 feet of lumber, went ashore at a late hour last night at Milwaukee life saving station. Her crew of nine men and Captain Brooks of Chicago were rescued. At an early hour this morning another large unknown vessel went ashore five miles south of the [illegible]

STEAMER WRECKED.

BOSTON, May 21.—The steamer City Point, for Annapolis from Boston, went ashore on the bar off Ipswich this morning. She is in water and probably a total wreck. Her passengers, together with the crew, were rescued.

ALL HANDS BELIEVED LOST.

SARNIA, Ont., May 21.—A gale has been blowing from the north since last night. A barge was driven ashore two miles above here, on the Canadian side, this evening, and all hands are believed lost.

The Dishonest Practices of a Well Known Army Officer—Ingersoll Still Pleading in the Star Route Trial.

A Dishonest Army Officer.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[Special.]—The scandal involving the integrity of a well known army officer who has been stationed in Washington for many years has furnished no end of gossip in army circles for several days. Quite recently this officer was ordered away from Washington to join his regiment in the field at his own request, as stated in official orders. The fact then came to light that he had sold his pay accounts to no less than three or four banking concerns. The persons holding the vouchers came together after the discovery and formed a syndicate, and agreed not to take any steps to have the officer court martialed, but to pool their accounts and draw his pay each month and divide it up pro rata. It appears also that this same officer has borrowed money from other officers, in some instances pledging personal property and then going and selling the property outright to other persons. Although the officer has drawn large pay for upwards of ten years he has run deeply into debt and flagrantly violated army regulations, and rendered himself liable to court-martial and dismissal from the service. It is difficult to see how he is to avoid exposure, especially as his transactions are now well known to a large number of army officers, including Sherman and Secretary Lincoln.

New Zealand Mail Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Robert J. Creighton, special postal commissioner for New Zealand, had a final interview with the postmaster-general to-day in relation to a continuance of the Pacific mail service between San Francisco and New Zealand and Australia, which he says was quite as satisfactory as he could have expected. The postoffice department now thoroughly understands the question and is finally impressed with the importance of the service to the commerce of the country. Although no promise was made involving public policy, Creighton is satisfied that the terms of his report will decide the New Zealand government to a continuance of the service. Latest advices from the colonies, he said, intimate grave doubts whether New South Wales would join in the subsidy at all, but that would not interfere with the course New Zealand would take in the matter.

Star Route Trial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Ingersoll resumed his argument in the star route trial to-day, and made a bitter assault on the character of Moore's testimony. He then reviewed the testimony of Rerdell. He referred to the affidavit of James and MacVeagh, his memorandum, his offer to pack the jury for the government and his speaking with counsel and furnishing a later affidavit. He denied that the celebrated red book ever existed, and pointed to Rerdell's conflicting statements on that subject, as contained in his affidavit. Ingersoll endeavored at some length to demonstrate that Rerdell had produced a private book of his own and foisted it off as one of Dorsey's books. He then took up the evidence of witness Gibbs, and had not concluded his address when the court adjourned.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The president has appointed Richard Lambert of California U. S. consul at San Blas, Mexico.

The president will probably leave Washington to-morrow afternoon for New York, to witness the opening of the Brooklyn bridge. He will be accompanied by Folger, Chandler, Gresham and Brewster.

The regular annual conference of division superintendents of the railway mail service was organized at the postoffice department to-day. The most important work of the conference will be a revision of the railway mail regulations.

EVANS OF KENTUCKY

Appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue—A Complete Surprise.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[Special.]—The president to-day appointed Walter Evans of Kentucky to be commissioner of internal revenue, to succeed General Raum. The appointment was a surprise to politicians, as it was expected that Silas B. Dutcher of New York would get the place, as it was known that on Saturday last the president was in communication with Dutcher's friends, relative to his accepting the office. Mr. Dutcher, who has gone into private business, declined the appointment. There is much adverse criticism of Mr. Evan's appointment, although there is little to be said to his discredit, save that he has been a place-hunter.

MR. EVANS' HISTORY.

During the war Mr. Evans was a union soldier. He served under General Bristow. When Bristow was appointed secretary of the treasury by General Grant Evans retained his friendship for both gentlemen. Republican politicians of Kentucky are at great loss to classify the collector in party ranks. At the Chicago convention he was a delegate from the state of Kentucky, and with the 306 battalion cast his vote for Grant first, last and always. He undoubtedly possesses a medal. Evans is a professional lawyer, about 37 years of age and has good executive ability. He is friendly disposed toward distillers, and will, his friends say, see that the laws are enforced.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Three years ago he received the republican nomination for governor of Kentucky, but was defeated at the polls by Governor Blackburn. The worst his enemies can say of him is that he is a professional office-seeker. His integrity as a citizen is not disputed.

The fact that Deputy Commissioner Rogers of Pennsylvania was not promoted to the office of commissioner causes comment. Rogers is fully qualified to discharge the duties of the position. He has been a faithful public servant for many years and was in the line of promotion.

Kentucky presented three candidates for the office—John W. Finnell, collector of the 6th district; Wm. J. Landrum, collector of the 8th, and Mr. Evans. Mr. Lewis Buckner, collector of the Louisville district, is in Washington now, and it is reported that he was instrumental in procuring Evans' appointment.

A LOUISVILLE REPORT.

LOUISVILLE, May 21.—Hon. Walter Evans of Louisville, who was nominated by the president to-day as commissioner of internal revenue to succeed Green B. Raum, is a lawyer about 41 years of age. He served as a lieutenant in the federal army during the war, and was elected to the legislature from Christian county in 1871. He was senator from the same county in 1873. Four years ago he was nominated for governor on the republican ticket and made a canvass of the state and received a good vote. He is quiet and unassuming, clear-headed, and a christian gentleman, and it is believed here that he will make a capable, efficient commissioner. He was at one time the law partner of Benj. H. Bristow. He was a Bristow man in the convention in 1876. In 1880 he was delegate at large to the Chicago convention, and one of the 306 who supported Grant. He has not heretofore held office, although he has had considerable influence in the distribution of federal patronage in Kentucky and he and Postmaster General Gresham are warm personal friends, and it is understood the latter was instrumental in securing the appointment. The new appointee was notified and sworn in to-day at Louisville, the occasion of this haste being that [illegible] days for which the acting commissioner of internal revenue could be appointed expired to-day.

AWAITING DECISION.

The Southern Pacific Wants the Texas Pacific Land Grant.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[Special.]—The Southern Pacific railroad company has made application to the interior department for the land grant of the Texas Pacific Company. The application is in the form of a communication by the attorney on behalf of the company. It is accompanied by a copy of the deed of assignment from the Texas Pacific to the Southern Pacific of all its franchises. The claim of the Southern Pacific is based on the principle of assignment, and it is urged that the opinion of the attorney-general in the case of the New Orleans and Pacific road, which the department of the interior has adopted, is a precedent for such claim. The officers of the interior department will not commit [illegible] Secretary Teller, who [illegible] In his judgment the subject [illegible] requires action of congress. IN THE COMMONS.

LONDON, May 21.—In the commons this afternoon Porter, attorney-general for Ireland, in reply to a question of Harrington, member for Westmeath, denied that Patrick Delaney, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, had pleaded guilty because of a previous agreement that his life would be spared if he would give evidence to criminate Timothy Kelly.

Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland, stated that the government intended to abolish the office of special resident magistrate in Ireland.

THE GOVERNOR GENERALSHIP OF CANADA.

LONDON, May 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette states that the governor-generalship of Canada, in succession of the Marquis of Lorne, has been offered to the Marquis of Lansdowne, who accepted. Lansdowne will probably sail for Canada next October.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

The London Daily News confirms the report of the appointment of Marquis Lansdown to the governor generalship of Canada.

RUSSIA.

THE APPROACHING CORONATION.

MOSCOW, May 21.—The special embassy which will represent France at the coronation of the czar have arrived here.

Windows from which a view may be had of the principal ceremony of the coronation are being rented at prices ranging from 100 to 1000 roubles each. The police require persons hiring them to give satisfactory evidence as to their character, and will permit no one to occupy windows until proof is furnished that they have no suspicious articles on their person. They have even forbidden the carrying of glasses into buildings from which views may be obtained, as they fear they may be sham articles containing dynamite, and intended for bombs that may be used against the czar.

Decorations are nearly completed. Part of the St. Petersburg road is almost concealed by bunting from every window and house top. Coats of arms, portraits and monograms of the imperial family and devices of welcome are displayed everywhere.

RECEPTION TO SPECIAL EMBASSIES.

MOSCOW, May 21.—The emperor and empress have given a reception to special foreign embassies here to attend the coronation. The weather is fine, and the city presents a brilliant and picturesque scene. Many delegates have arrived from Asia.

GERMANY.

PRUSSIA AND THE VATICAN.

BERLIN, May 21.—The North German Gazette says the substance of Russia's last note to the vatican is as follows: The government attaches special value to the notice of appointments contemplated, because it regards such notification as a question of the honored primary conditions of liberty between the spiritual and the temporal authorities. The government is prepared to rescind the order to the ecclesiastical court in regard to notifying preferments and to dispense therewith altogether in the case of clergymen, and thus remedy present inadequate provisions. In conclusion, the note alludes to the attitude of Russia, and expresses the conviction that a settlement is to be expected as soon as the curia has agreed to the matter. Notification of the state has created a sensation. The Gazette's correspondent at Rome says the vatican replied to Russia's note, endeavoring to return to the basis of negotiation which existed before the note was sent. He adds that Baron Von Schloeser, in view of the bad impression created by the note, has already suggested a fresh basis.

IRELAND.

MEMORIAL MONUMENT TO BURKE.

DUBLIN, May 21.—A memorial monument to Burke, assassinated in Phoenix park, was placed in position at Glasnevin cemetery. Police guard it. Magistrates erected the monument.

FRANCE.

ENDED IN A FREE FIGHT.

PARIS, May 21.—The so-called workingmen's congress was held here last evening and ended with a general fight. One man was stabbed and several others, including Joffrin, member of the municipal council, otherwise injured.

COUNT DE CHAMBORD'S PLANS.

PARIS, May 21.—The reactionary utterances of Count de Chambord lend credibility to the rumor that he intends to make his son, Don Carlos, heir, and his claims as king of France, to the exclusion of the Orleanist princes.

WILL NOT CLASH.

PARIS, May 21.—There is no fear of a collision between Henry M. Stanley and DeBrazza, the former having evacuated a certain position which he had occupied, under the impression that they were outside of the Mikados territory.

ITALY.

SUPPLEMENTAL CIRCULAR.

ROME, May 21.—The Papal Propaganda has issued a supplemental circular to the Irish bishops informing previous [illegible] and containing answers to many priests who asked for advice on matters of conscience. The Propaganda will shortly issue a circular greeting Cardinal Cullen to Rome. He has always opposed seditious associations.

ACCIDENTS.

BOILER EXPLOSION WITH FATAL RESULTS.

DETROIT, May 21.—This afternoon a boiler explosion occurred at the New Wolverine paper mill. The walls of the building were blown down and the shock of the explosion was felt many blocks away. Wm. Thompson, engineer, was instantly killed, and the fireman will die. Loss about $90,000.

KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION.

WILKESBARRE, May 21.—James Calleran and George Evans went into a mine at Salt Spring, with naked lamps, and an explosion followed. The body of Calleran has not been recovered.

DIED FROM HER INJURIES.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 21.—Mrs. G. R. Bodely, daughter of the late Senator Hill, died to-day from injuries received in jumping from a runaway buggy.

FIRES.

DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE IN VERMONT.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 21.—At Grafton Pond, twenty-three miles from here, on the line of the Montpelier & Wells River railroad, last Saturday afternoon, there was the most destructive fire ever known in Vermont. It originated by burning brush about noon, and the wind blowing a gale, the flames swept everything before them. A large number of houses, live stock and dressed lumber were destroyed, and many families rendered destitute. Loss, $200,000.

VILLAGE BURNED.

BERLIN, May 21.—The village of [illegible] was totally destroyed by fire. Even the fruit trees and wooden crosses in the church yards were burned. The entire population of 1300 are homeless.

SPORTING NOTES.

WALLACE DEFEATS VIGNAUX.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Vignaux and Wallace played the thirteenth game of the tournament to-night. The game was very close throughout. Wallace won in the ninetieth inning. Vignaux was but three points behind, but his friends were very much disappointed at his defeat. He was looked upon as sure to win. Score—Wallace, 500; average, 5 50-100; best run, 37. Vignaux, 497; average, 5 43-90; best run, 47.

DALY DEFEATS CARTER.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Afternoon game—Daly, 500; average, [illegible]; best run, [illegible]. Carter, 432; average, [illegible]; best run, 36. Time of game, 2 hours and 15 minutes.

Messrs. Fleming Bros.:
Gents—I take this opportunity of informing you of the benefits I have derived from Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills. I have for two years past been afflicted with a severe pain over the eyes, accompanied with a nervousness and [illegible] a malady beyond the power and skill of [illegible] physicians to relieve and cure, caused, so far as I myself could judge, by a diseased state of the liver and stomach. Some of the doctors tried blistering, and various other remedies [illegible] but all in vain, for the deep-rooted disease [illegible] stuck fast. At last, I procured a box of your valuable Liver Pills from a druggist here, and found after taking a portion of them, that the distress and painful sensation over the eyes [illegible] entirely left me. I will close by advising all [illegible] afflicted as I have been, to procure the valuable medicine at once and save much time and pain, with little expense. With sincere gratitude and respect, I remain, yours respectfully,
Geo. W. Russell, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, No. [illegible] Seventh street, testify that they have both been suffering with the liver complaint for about five years, during which time they have spent a large amount of money and tried many remedies, but to no purpose. Finally, hearing of Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa., they purchased four boxes, which they took according to the directions [illegible] and now pronounce themselves perfectly cured of that distressing disease.

Ratifying the Irish Convention.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The large hall of Cooper's institute was filled to-night on the occasion of a meeting to ratify the action of the convention of Irish societies at Philadelphia, and of the formal organization of the Irish national league of America in this city. The interior was decorated with American and Irish flags. Among those present were Mrs. Parnell, Alexander Sullivan, president of of the Irish national league of America, Thos. Brennan, secretary of the league in Ireland, Col. Frederick A. Conkling, John Devoy, Patrick J. Sheridan, Dr. Wm. B. Wallace and others. President Alexander Sullivan urged the Irish in America to work for the objects in view. Members of patriotic, benevolent and other organizations would find the platform of the league broad enough for all to stand on. They need not abandon their own special work nor permit it to be interfered with. They need only to enlarge their work by embracing that of the league. Brennan and others also spoke. A resolution was adopted, endorsing the action of the Philadelphia convention, pledging support to the national league, urging the Irish to use all their influence to diminish the consumption of articles of English manufacture in this country.

Fifth Virginia at Niagara Falls.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., May 21.—[Special.]—The Fifth Virginia confederate veterans arrived at Niagara Falls to-day. They left Staunton, Virginia, Saturday at 1 P. M. There are eighty-three veterans, seventy prominent citizens, and a number of ladies on the excursion. Notwithstanding a drenching rain all day they were given cheers and hearty greetings by the large crowds at all the stations along the line of the road. The veterans were met by Colonel Brown, of the Twenty-Seventh New York, at a way station, who accompanied them to the falls, where to-morrow they will join in the annual reunion of the Twenty-Eighth, as their guests. The Twenty-Eighth's battle flag, captured from them at the battle field of Cedar Mountain, in August, 1862, at which time the Fifth Virginia killed, wounded or captured two-thirds of the Twenty-Eighth regiment, will be returned with appropriate ceremonies. This is the first time in the United States since the rebellion that such a reunion of federals and confederates has occurred.

The Count de Chambord's Health.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—The New York Herald's special gives an account of a correspondent interviewing Count de Chambord's secretaries. I saw, with surprise, which caused them to laugh, a huge pile of telegrams from England, Germany and America, asking about the health of the count. The secretaries explained that his leg had been sprained weeks ago, causing a rupture of the tendons. Treatment with bandages was resorted to and perfect quiet was recommended. Walking, riding and hunting, in which the prince excels, had to be stopped. This is an important feature of the case. In order to hasten his cure it was decided that the prince should receive nobody till his departure for Frohsdorf, which occurred yesterday. It was this fact which caused the reports that his illness was dangerous. Barring the accident to his leg the health of the prince is excellent. Just as I was opening the door the prince said: "Mind and tell our friends that I am more alive than ever."

Reports Unfounded.

DENVER, Col., May 21.—The El Paso Times received the following from its special correspondent, dated Chihuahua, 11 A. M. to-day: There is no truth in the report of the killing of five men near Sauz station, on the Mexican Central, as reported here on Saturday. No news of military movements in the Sierras has been received at headquarters. General Fuero has not arrived as yet, but is expected here in two or three days. Great discontent is expressed by both Mexicans and Americans here at the circulation of the unfounded reports as to the killing by Indians. Travel is perfectly safe.

Plan for Reorganization.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The plan adopted by the harmony committee for the reorganization of the republican party in this city consists of a yearly appointment of the republican voters of the city under the general direction of a committee of enrolling officers. In each assembly district there will be two members of the existing organizations, two who are not members and one man a resident of the district.

Can Read Butler Like a Book.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—Gen. Longstreet is here, and being interviewed, said: "The southern negroes are intelligent and tricky. They can read Butler like a book. We have generally put aside politics in Georgia, and want northern capital. Tilden is favorably spoken of for president, but our people would prefer some man not yet mentioned."

San Franciscans in New York.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—San Franciscans at Hotels: H. P. Livermore, J. L. Mahoney, F. D. Macks, E. Peiser, E. H. Reade, F. Richter, J. H. Robinson, A. B. Stanley, M. Trone, E. H. Williams, J. Franklin, Mrs. S. E. Fritch, Miss L. Fritch, W. Hobart, E. Dye, Hinsdon, W. H. Rose, J. Rosenberg, Mrs. E. W. Weddell.

Denver's Mineral Show.

DENVER, May 21.—The mineral exhibit of the Denver exposition grows in magnitude every day. Every mineral producing state west of the Mississippi river will be represented by largely increased exhibits over last year. The counties in Colorado, under state law, have thus far appropriated $30,000 for the mineral collection.

The Last Work.

MILWAUKEE, May 21.—Delegates to the Y. M. C. A. international convention held a closing conference to-day, at the residence of J. H. Vandyke, to discuss plans for erecting a building for the association in the city. Half of the delegates have already gone from the city, and the others leave to-morrow.

Corner Stone Laid.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 21.—[Special.]—Yesterday the Masonic fraternity laid the corner stone of the Rose orphans' home, named after its founder, Chauncey Rose. When completed it will be one of the handsomest buildings in the city. Its endowment fund is $[illegible],000.

George Alfred Townsend Chastised.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—The World says: Duncan Harrison, brother of Maude Harrison, the actress, pommelled George Alfred Townsend, the well-known correspondent, last night uptown, for an alleged insulting letter about Maude.

Wife of the President of Guatemala.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—Senora Frances Cul Aparicio De Barrios, wife of the president of Guatemala, sailed on the steamer Para yesterday, after a sojourn of one year in this city, where she has been educating her four children.

Tabor Receives a Scoring.

DENVER, May 21.—This morning, in the case of Wm. H. Bush, charged by ex-Senator Tabor with embezzling $2000, the jury was out five minutes and returned a verdict of not guilty. Tabor received a terrible scoring from Bush's lawyers.

Returned to Work.

PITTSBURG, May 21.—Nearly all the railroad coal miners returned to-day, at the three cents mining rate, pending a settlement of the wages question by the operators' and miners' trades tribunal. About 4000 returned to work.

Hearing Reports.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 21.—The Evangelical Lutheran Synod to-day was occupied in receiving and hearing reports. The secretary's report showed increased business, and receipts in excess of former years.

Dunn Congratulated.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Dunn exhibits telegrams of congratulation from Joseph K. Colder of the Union square theatre, New York, Gus. Williams and McKee Rankin.

Neil Dow Very Ill.

BOSTON, May 21.—[Special.]—Neil Dow, of Portland, Maine, of prohibition fame, is very ill with lung trouble, at the Parker house.

CRIMINAL.

SERIES OF BLOODY DEATHS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21.—The Times-Democrat's Louisiana special says: Yesterday Guion and Pierce and William Curley were murdered in the southern part of St. Helena parish. Guion's parents lived here last year, and were murdered some three months ago in Livingston parish. Suspicion pointed to James and William Curley as the assassins. Pierce and Guion resolved to avenge their father's death. About a month after the first murder James Curley was murdered. Last week the suspected men were at Greensburg, St. Helena parish, but learning that they would probably be arrested on suspicion, the slayers of James Curley left town and remained at a house in the country, starting yesterday for home in Livingston parish. It is supposed that William Curley and Robert Morrison, his brother-in-law, ambushed themselves among the pines. In a fight which followed William Curley was killed. A coroner's inquest is being held to-day.

A DEPLORABLE AFFAIR.

CLEVELAND, O., May 21.—Julia Henschere, a beautiful young woman, was married on her dying bed Wednesday to O. W. Seymour, and Friday she died. Sunday she was buried, and to-day the body was exhumed by order of the coroner, and an autopsy held. Evidence of abortion was discovered, and Seymour and a midwife named Sylvia [illegible] Webster are under arrest, charged with complicity in her death.

OUTRAGED BY INDIANS.

YANKTON, May 21.—Officers from above bring reports that Indians at Crow [illegible] raped a white girl 15 years old last week. A marshal leaves here to-night to make arrests and bring the parties to Yankton for trial. The penalty of the United States law is death.

EXTENT OF THE FRAUDS.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The report of the New York commissioner of accounts shows that the frauds committed upon the city treasury by Chorell, late coupon clerk, amount to $179,000.

KILLED EACH OTHER.

MEXICO, Mo., May 21.—A bloody affray occurred yesterday between R. P. Sayland of Little Rock and H. B. McCabe of Rochester. Both were killed instantly.

USEFUL INVENTION OF A SAN FRANCISCAN.

Union Pacific Men Ousted—The Grain Situation—Found Dead in His Bed—San Francisco Notes.

Believes Stanford was Misquoted.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—[Special.]—A. N. Towne, general manager, referring to a dispatch from New York, published this afternoon, which quotes Gov. Stanford as saying that the steamers carrying wheat from New Orleans to Europe, in connection with the Southern Pacific road, will on their return trips bring French and Italian immigrants at $25 each, instead of $65, the former rate, he says it is undoubtedly a mistake. He believed, at the best, that Gov. Stanford had been misquoted, and the tenor of the statement must have been founded on a supposition that the eastward carrying business and shipments to Europe were sufficiently remunerative to enable the company to bring immigrants free on the return trips. The railroad company has borne one-quarter of the expense of maintaining the immigration association, operated under the auspices of the board of trade, and is desirous of doing all in its power toward bringing desirable immigration into the state, but he does not believe any reduction on the present fares is talked of, nor that the road could afford to carry them at a lower figure.

Southern Pacific Enterprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Accounts received show that the immigration bureau established by the Central Pacific at Chicago is more important than at first supposed. In connection with it agencies have been established in London, Bordeaux, Berlin and Gottenburg, and under direction of its powerful organization the greatest efforts will be made to bring by its two routes the largest number at the cheapest rates possible.

Freight that left New York the 5th, via New Orleans was ready for delivery to-day at noon. The Southern Pacific promises to keep this up. The train which came in to-day consisted of twenty-four cars. The time of freight by the Central Pacific in the past has averaged all the way from twenty-five to forty days. Steamers leave New York for New Orleans twice a week, and it is believed that it will soon be necessary for a dispatch steamer daily.

An Electrical Invention.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—[Special.]—Leon Bledsx of this city has taken out a patent for an electrical safety contrivance by which two engines approaching each other on the same track are warned of their danger in time to avert a collision. It consists of an insulated wire extending along the inner concavity of the rails on both sides of the track, with a break at every station. Each engine will carry a dynamo from which is suspended a metallic brush, always in contact with the wire, so that the engines on passing a station come in contact with the same set of wires, forming a complete electrical current, and sounding an alarm bell on each engine.

Immigration Scheme.

[Special.]—The Call will publish to-morrow an exhaustive review of the plan proposed by the Central and Southern Pacific railroad to induce immigration into the state. Immigration bureaus have been established at Chicago, London, Bordeaux, Berlin and Gottenburg, and representatives have been sent out with complete maps showing the location of government lands and general features of the soil. The plan is the result of careful consideration of the immigration problem, and the expense of maintaining it will be borne by the railroads.

Death of Otis H. Beebe.

[Special.]—Otis H. Beebe, residing in Portland and employed in the office of the Northern Pacific, died at the Occidental hotel last night. He came here a few weeks ago for the benefit of his health, and went to Gilroy. He grew worse, and his sister, who accompanied him, was advised to return to Portland. They left Gilroy Saturday, and intended leaving for the north the following day. He was in the last stages of consumption. The body was shipped on the Oregon.

Ordered to Alaska.

Captain Healy, of the revenue cutter Corwin, has received orders to proceed to Alaska, to take charge of that section during the fishing season. He is instructed to obtain all possible information concerning Alaska matters in general, from Commander Glass, who was in command of the Wachusett, and who established martial law in the Harrisburg mines. It is thought the Adams, now in Alaska, will be recalled.

Counterfeit Five Dollar Pieces.

Colonel Finnegass, of the United States secret service, has received information from James J. Brooks, chief of the secret service division, that a new counterfeit five dollar coin has made its appearance, purporting to be a coin struck in 1847, very heavily plated, but 40½ grains light. The impression is that it was struck from original dies prepared for the purpose.

Cable Road Accident.

Another fatal accident happened on the Geary street cable road last night, whereby a Chinaman was killed. The engineer was arrested, charged with manslaughter, but it is stated it will be shown that no blame can be attached to him.

Large Sailing Vessel.

The Lammore, the largest sailing vessel ever constructed is now in port. She is a four-master steel ship, 3[illegible] feet long, and is just now one of the sights, many persons visiting her.

San Francisco Notes.

The O. S. Hurlbut is 200 days from New York for Portland, and grave fears for her safety are entertained.

The thermometer yesterday marked 83 degrees in the shade. The trade winds are being anxiously looked for.

The British bark Chin Se, recently condemned here, was towed over to Kershaw's point, and the hull burned, last night for the iron.

Wild Flower, Hinda, Rosa, and six other horses from Leland Stanford's Palo Alto stables, were shipped east to-day, in a special car, in care of Charles Marvin.

The new iron steamer Mariposa, Cramps built, Philadelphia, cleared for this port Friday. She will run between this port and Honolulu. She is owned by the Oceanic Steamship Company.

Newspaper Sale.

LOS ANGELES, May 21.—Jesse Yarnell, senior proprietor of the Los Angeles Daily Times and its Weekly Mirror, has sold his entire interest in these journals to A. W. Francisco, the well known veteran and successful newspaper man of Ohio, formerly manager of the Cincinnati Times and the Ohio State Journal. It is learned that the sale was for cash, on a valuation of $20,000 for the whole concern. The firm is now composed of A. W. Francisco, T. J. Carpenter, S. J. Mathes and H. S. Otis. Mr. Francisco is expected to arrive here at an early day and take active part in the business of these papers.

UTAH.

Union Pacific Men Ousted.

SALT LAKE, May 21.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Utah and Nevada railway in this city it was discovered that G. W. Benfield held proxies of Eastern stockholders sufficient to control the election, and at a subsequent meeting elected a board of directors composed of Salt Lake men in place of Sydney Dillon and the Union Pacific men who have heretofore held positions. This is looked upon as a Denver and Rio Grande movement, and if successful, as anticipated, forms a new link of narrow gauge road leading to Nevada and California. At present there are 37 miles of this road completed and in operation, and it controls bathing resorts on the southern shore of the great Salt Lake.

Railroad Notes.

SALT LAKE, May 21.—A company called the Utah Eastern was to-day formed in this city, for the purpose of building a narrow gauge railroad from Salt Lake to Park City, a distance of thirty miles. This road is to be in operation in ninety days, and will open a great coal and mineral country tributary to Salt Lake.

It is anticipated that work will be commenced on the Salt Lake and Western road in a few weeks, and that it will be pushed with great vigor through to San Francisco.

NEVADA.

Mrs. Uhler Returns to New York.

RENO, May 21.—Mrs. Uhler, the woman who gained so conspicuously in the recent Gosling-Hay [illegible] tragedy in New York, left here for that city to-day.

TUCSON, May 21.—Thomas Hiskamp of Tucson was shot at Greaterville last night by a drunken Mexican. The shooting is said to have been accidental.

STATE DISPATCHES.

Found Dead in his Bed.

DALLAS, May 21.—[Special.]—John O'Rourke, a saloon keeper at this place, was found dead in his bed this morning. He retired Saturday night apparently well, and not getting up, his friends [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] his death [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] bed, having died, it is supposed, Saturday night, and apparently without a struggle. A coroner's jury, after [illegible] for some time, found that he came to his death from natural causes.

OPIUM SMOKING.

How and Where the Chinese of Chicago Secure Their Supply of the Drug.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Opium dens continue to receive attention from the local press, which has demonstrated that opium smoking exists here and is on the increase. A visit to several retail drug stores revealed the fact that except on rare occasions Chinamen do not apply at the counters for opium. They explain this upon the assumption that their prices are too high, that Chinamen, being as good judges of opium as they, and buying in large quantities, can get as good prices from wholesale houses as the druggists get.

A visit to three or four wholesale houses secured various statements. One did not sell at all to any except they were known to be druggists. Another had

NO CALLS FOR OPIUM BY CHINAMEN.

A third admitted that the firm sold opium to Chinamen, but believed, as the quantities bought were small, that they only supplied a deficiency, and that the bulk of the opium used in dens comes direct from San Francisco importers to Chinamen in this city.

Visits to the express offices revealed the fact that Chinamen receive a large number of small boxes by express direct from San Francisco from time to time. Physicians who are pretty well informed as to Chinese movements stated that considerable opium came by express in the form of an extract, while much of the same goods was left here by traveling Chinese peddlers.

Opium Smoking in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 21.—A number of opium dens have been discovered here which are presided over by a Chinaman, and which are patronized by white men and women. The Enquirer says: "Right here in this city there is a joint, the proprietor of which declared his intention of admitting only females. Consequently members of other dens who find it necessary to 'hit the pipe' to live, are considerably excited and put out. They say the reason of this action is that the Chinaman is enjoying himself with his visitors to an extent that would not be permitted were they present. It is a small, rickety, one-story frame house, and is owned by Lum Sing. The women who visit the house include the inmates of houses of ill-fame. One of the girls in particular 'hits the pipe' as regularly as she eats. Lum Sing and his attendants are said to enjoy themselves greatly with their patrons. It is not infrequent for them to be seen reclining beside the drowsy and half unconscious smoker, and taking the most indecent liberties with her. Several variety actresses who are fond of the habit also seek this dive. In the city there has been considerable talk lately in regard to one member of the profession in particular, whose husband has threatened the Chinaman for his boldness.

A Chinese Doctor Defends his Countrymen.

NEW YORK, May 21.—[Special.]—Doctor A Wing, a Chinaman, writes a letter to the Times whereof the following is the epitome: "We would like Father B—— to extend his knowledge and that of his people, and educate them to better behavior. My people are insulted continually, and persecuted by those who profess to belong to churches resembling the one on Mott street. Surely the christian brothers in the association might assist in giving correct figures to such questions as these: First—How many Chinese are in prison? Second—How many are beggars? Third—How many throw stones and injure others who labor for their bread as we do? Fourth—How many destroy store windows and insult you by calling you names as you pass quietly along the streets? Fifth—How many do you see drunk or lying about houseless? Sixth—How many keep rum holes? Those cared for in the hospitals are there, nine cases out of ten, from blows received from the idle and vicious of other nationalities, who are so justly (?) prejudiced against us; but when death results from violence, we bury our murdered ones ourselves. When we read police reports every day of accounts of fighting, stabbing and cruelty to women and children, we feel sorry for the priests who have so much to attend to that they cannot have time to spare seeking out the Chinese."

SHIPPING DISASTERS.

A Terrific Storm on Lake Michigan Wrecks a Number of Vessels—Several Lives Lost.

CHICAGO, May 21.—A storm of extraordinary force prevailed on Lake Michigan last night, and a number of sailing vessels bound for this port were wrecked, but the extent of the disaster is only yet partially known. The chief disaster thus far reported is that of the two-masted schooner Jennie Lynn, lumber laden from Muskegon, which capsized while near land, about 5 o'clock this morning. The mate swam ashore and was rescued. John Anderson, Captain L. Peterson, A. Helgeson and a man named Christiansen, sailors, were drowned.

The schooner Mary Ellen Cook, Captain Williams, early this morning bore down on the government breakwater, and the breakwater light, having either been extinguished by the storm or through the inability of the light-house keeper to light it, being placed in an exceptionally exposed place, the vessel was driven against the breakwater and afterward carried by the waves completely over the obstruction into the inner harbor, where she soon waterlogged. They succeeded in rescuing the crew, with the exception of a boy, Frank Miller, who in the excitement threw himself overboard and drowned.

The schooner Henry Berger, lumber laden from Ludington, was also driven against the breakwater and wrecked, but the crew were saved.

CHICAGO, May 21—Midnight.—Up to this hour no further loss of life has occurred along the lake shore. A number of vessels have been injured, but no serious wreck has been reported. The wind has fallen very materially and the danger is believed to be past, though the waves continue very high. Saturday two men and a boy were out fishing when the storm came up. They were driven toward shore and managed to climb on to the shore at the Fullerton avenue conduit, a few yards from shore, at the north city limits, on Sunday. They were not discovered till to-day, when a portion of the life-saving crew went to their assistance. The surf was so heavy that it was impossible to launch the life-boat, and attempts to rescue were given up till the waves subside, and they will have to pass another night on the crib. They have succeeded in securing shelter and are not liable to suffer much.

SEVEN DROWNED.

MILWAUKEE, May 21.—Off this port last night six of the crew of the schooner Petrel deserted the captain, and taking a yawl boat attempted to reach the shore, thinking the schooner would founder. They had gone but a short distance when the yawl capsized and three of the crew were drowned. The others clung to the bottom of the boat and were saved this morning.

TWO VESSELS WRECKED.

MILWAUKEE, May 21.—The schooner Lillie E., of Manistee, laden with 150,000 feet of lumber, went ashore at a late hour last night at Hillsouth life saving station. Her crew of nine men and Captain Brooks of Chicago were rescued. At an early hour this morning another large unknown vessel went ashore five miles south of the Lillie E.

STEAMER WRECKED.

BOSTON, May 21.—The steamer City Point, for Annapolis from Boston, went ashore on the bar off Ipswich this morning. She is now full of water and probably a total wreck. Her passengers, together with the crew, were rescued.

ALL HANDS BELIEVED LOST.

BARRIE, Ont., May 21.—A gale has been blowing from the north since last night. A barge was driven ashore two miles above here, on the Canadian side, this evening, and all hands are believed lost.

Storm Notes.

MUNCIE, Ind., May 21.—Snow covers the ground thirty miles south of here. Streams are out of their banks.

FINDLAY, O., May 21.—Snow several inches deep.

WAPAKONETA, O., May 21.—A deep snow is breaking trees. Thermometer, 32.

HAGERSTOWN, Ind., May 21.—Snow has fallen since noon.

EATON, O., May 21.—Snow commenced falling at 10 to-day and the ground is now covered.

LIMA, O., May 21.—Twelve inches of snow; trees breaking.

BELLEFONTAINE, O., May 21.—Four inches of snow. Thermometer, 34.

TOLEDO, O., May 21.—Snow began falling here at noon to-day, and at 8 P. M. it is still snowing. There is about three inches on the ground.

DETROIT, May 21.—One of the worst storms, mingled with snow and rain, that ever struck Michigan is raging this afternoon and evening, accompanied by high wind. Trees in blossom present a sorry appearance. The effect of the storm upon the fruit cannot be estimated. Thus far no disasters are reported from Lake Huron and it is hoped sufficient warning was given.

Storm in New York.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Heavy rain fell to-night, with lightning and thunder. Streets are flooded in various parts of the city. No serious damage is thus far reported.

The Dishonest Practices of a Well Known Army Officer—Ingersoll Still Pleading in the Star Route Trial.

A Dishonest Army Officer.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[Special.]—The scandal involving the integrity of a well known army officer who has been stationed in Washington for many years has furnished no end of gossip in army circles for several days. Quite recently this officer was ordered away from Washington to join his regiment in the field at his own request, as stated in official orders. The fact then came to light that he had sold his pay accounts to no less than three or four banking concerns. The persons holding the vouchers came together after the discovery and formed a syndicate, and agreed not to take any steps to have the officer court-martialed, but to pool their accounts and draw his pay each month and divide it up pro rata. It appears also that this same officer has borrowed money from other officers, in some instances pledging personal property and then going and selling the property outright to other persons. Although the officer has drawn large pay for upwards of ten years he has run deeply into debt and flagrantly violated army regulations, and rendered himself liable to court-martial and dismissal from the service. It is difficult to see how he is to avoid exposure especially as his transactions are now well known to a large number of army officers, including Sherman and Secretary Lincoln.

New Zealand Mail Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Robert J. Creighton, special postal commissioner for New Zealand, has a final interview with the postmaster-general to-day, in relation to a continuance of the Pacific mail service between San Francisco and New Zealand and Australia, which he says was quite as satisfactory as he could have expected. The postoffice department now thoroughly understands the question and is finally impressed with the importance of the service to the commerce of the country. Although no promise was made involving public policy, Creighton is satisfied that the terms of his report will decide the New Zealand government to a continuance of the service. Latest advices from the colonies, he said, intimate grave doubts whether New South Wales would join in the subsidy at all, but that would not interfere with the course New Zealand would take in the matter.

Star Route Trial.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Ingersoll resumed his argument in the star route trial to-day, and made a bitter assault on the character of Moore's testimony. He then reviewed the testimony of Rerdell. He referred to the affidavit of James and MacVeagh, his memorandum, his offer to pack the jury for the government and his speaking with counsel and furnishing a later affidavit. He denied that the celebrated red book ever existed, and pointed to Rerdell's conflicting statements on that subject, as contained in his affidavit. Ingersoll endeavored at some length to demonstrate that Rerdell had produced a private book of his own and foisted it off as one of Dorsey's books. He then took up the evidence of witness Gibbs, and had not concluded his address when the court adjourned.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The president has appointed Richard Lambert of California U. S. consul at San Blas, Mexico.

The president will probably leave Washington to-morrow afternoon for New York, to witness the opening of the Brooklyn bridge. He will be accompanied by Folger, Chandler, Gresham and Brewster.

The regular annual conference of division superintendents of the railway mail service was organized at the postoffice department to-day. The most important work of the conference will be a revision of the railway mail regulations.

EVANS OF KENTUCKY

Appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue—A Complete Surprise.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[Special.]—The president to-day appointed Walter Evans of Kentucky to be commissioner of internal revenue, to succeed General Raum. The appointment was a surprise to politicians, as it was expected that Silas B. Dutcher of New York would get the place, as it was known that on Saturday last the president was in communication with Dutcher's friends, relative to his accepting the office. Mr. Dutcher, who has gone into private business, declined the appointment. There is much adverse criticism of Mr. Evans's appointment, although there is little to be said to his discredit, save that he has been a place-hunter.

MR. EVANS' HISTORY.

During the war Mr. Evans was a union soldier. He served under General Bristow. When Bristow was appointed secretary of the treasury by General Grant, Evans retained his friendship for both gentlemen. Republican politicians of Kentucky were at great loss to classify the collector in party ranks. At the Chicago convention he was a delegate from the state of Kentucky, and with the 306 battalion cast his vote for Grant first, last and always. He undoubtedly possesses a medal. Evans is a professional lawyer, about 50 years of age and has good executive ability. He is friendly disposed toward distillers, and will, his friends say, see that the laws are enforced.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

Three years ago he received the republican nomination for governor of Kentucky, but was defeated at the polls by Governor Blackburn. The worst his enemies can say of him is that he is a professional office-seeker. His integrity as a citizen is not disputed.

The fact that Deputy Commissioner Rogers of Pennsylvania was not promoted to the office of commissioner causes comment. Rogers is fully qualified to discharge the duties of the position. He has been a faithful public servant for many years, and was in the line of promotion.

Kentucky presented three candidates for the office—John W. Finnell, collector of the 6th district; Wm. J. Langham, collector of the 5th, and Mr. Evans. Mr. Louis Buckner, collector of the Louisville district, is in Washington now, and it is reported that he was instrumental in procuring Evans' appointment.

A LOUISVILLE REPORT.

LOUISVILLE, May 21.—Hon. Walter Evans of Louisville, who was nominated by the president to-day as commissioner of internal revenue to succeed Green B. Raum, is a lawyer about 41 years of age. He served as a lieutenant in the federal army during the war, and was elected to the legislature from Christian county in 1867. He was senator from the same county in 1879. Four years ago he was nominated for governor on the republican ticket and made a canvass of the state and received a good vote. He is quiet and unassuming, clear-headed, and a christian gentleman, and it is believed here that he will make a capable, efficient commissioner. He was at one time the law partner of Benj. Hopkins. He was a Bristow man at the convention in 1876. In 1880 he was delegate at large to the Chicago convention, and one of the 306 who supported Grant. He has not heretofore held office, although he has had considerable influence in the distribution of federal patronage in Kentucky, and he and Postmaster General Gresham are warm personal friends, and it is understood the latter was instrumental in securing his appointment. The new appointee was qualified and sworn in to-day at Louisville, the occasion of this haste being that ten days for which the acting commissioner of internal revenue could be appointed expired to-day.

AWAITING DECISION.

The Southern Pacific Wants the Texas Pacific Land Grant.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—[Special.]—The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has made application to the interior department for the land grant of the Texas Pacific Company. The application is in the form of a claim made by the attorney on behalf of the company. It is accompanied by a copy of the deed of assignment from the Texas Pacific to the Southern Pacific of all its franchises. The claim of the southern Pacific is based on the principle of assignment, and it is urged that the opinion of the attorney-general in the case of the New Orleans and Pacific road, which the department of the interior has accepted, is a precedent for such claim. The officers of the interior department will not communicate on so important a question as this. The papers have been presented to Secretary Teller, who has entered upon them. In his judgment it is a subject is one which requires action of congress. The decision in the case of the New Orleans and Pacific road is said to establish a precedent as to some general features, but it is also claimed that there are important points of difference between the two.

Another Account.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has recently made application to the secretary of the interior for the lands originally granted the Texas Pacific railroad company for the construction of its road. These lands are claimed by virtue of an assignment from the Texas Pacific company, which has failed to construct the road for which the grant was made, and the basis of claim is in this respect similar to that on which the New Orleans and Pacific Railroad Company was recently awarded a portion of the lands granted originally to the Baton Rouge and Vicksburg company. The lands in dispute were [illegible] [illegible] a part of [illegible] the grant to the New Orleans and Pacific company, which completed the line. The attorney general, in an opinion rendered [illegible]

FOREIGN NEWS.

ENGLAND.

IN THE COMMONS.

LONDON, May 21.—In the commons this afternoon Porter, attorney-general for Ireland, in reply to a question of Harrington, member for Westmeath, denied that Patrick Delaney, one of the Phoenix Park murderers, had pleaded guilty because of a previous agreement that his life would be spared if he would give evidence to criminate Timothy Kelly.

Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland, stated that the government intended to abolish the office of special resident magistrate in Ireland.

THE GOVERNOR GENERALSHIP OF CANADA.

LONDON, May 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette states that the governor-generalship of Canada, in succession of the Marquis of Lorne, has been offered to the Marquis of Lansdowne, who accepted. Lansdowne will probably sail for Canada next October.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

The London Daily News confirms the report of the appointment of Marquis Lansdown to the governor generalship of Canada.

RUSSIA.

THE APPROACHING CORONATION.

MOSCOW, May 21.—The special embassy which will represent France at the coronation of the czar have arrived here.

Windows from which a view may be had of the principal ceremony of the coronation are being rented at prices ranging from 100 to 1000 roubles each. The police require persons hiring them to give satisfactory evidence as to their character, and will permit no one to occupy windows until proof is furnished that they have no suspicious articles on their person. They have even forbidden the carrying of glasses into buildings from which views may be obtained, as they fear they may be sham articles containing dynamite, and intended for bombs that may be used against the czar.

Decorations are nearly completed. Part of the St. Petersburg road is almost concealed by bunting from every window and house top. Coat of arms, portraits and monograms of the imperial family and devices of welcome are displayed everywhere.

RECEPTION TO SPECIAL EMBASSIES.

MOSCOW, May 21.—The emperor and empress have given a reception to special foreign embassies here to attend the coronation. The weather is fine, and the city presents a brilliant and picturesque scene. Many delegates have arrived from Asia.

GERMANY.

PRUSSIA AND THE VATICAN.

BERLIN, May 21.—The North German Gazette says the substance of Russia's last note to the vatican is as follows: The government attaches special value to the notice of appointments contemplated, because it regards such notification as a question of the honored primary conditions of liberty between the spiritual and the temporal authorities. The government is prepared to suspend the order to the ecclesiastical court in regard to notifying predecessors, and to dispense therewith altogether in the case of clergymen, and thus remedy present inadequate provisions. In conclusion, the note alludes to the attitude of Russia, and expresses the conviction that a settlement is to be expected as soon as the curia has agreed to this matter. Modification of the state has created a sensation. The Gazette's correspondent at Rome says the vatican replied to Russia's note, endeavoring to return to the basis of negotiation which existed before the note was sent. He adds that Baron Von Schloezer, in view of the bad impression created by the note, has already suggested a fresh basis.

KILLED BY AN EXPLOSION.

WILKESBARRE, May 21.—James Colleran and Joseph Evans went into a mine at Salt Spring, with naked lamps, and an explosion followed. The body of Colleran has not been recovered.

DIED FROM HER INJURIES.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 21.—Mrs. G. B. Reilly, daughter of the late Senator Hill, died to-day from injuries received in jumping from a runaway buggy.

FIRES.

DESTRUCTIVE BLAZE IN VERMONT.

MONTPELIER, Vt., May 21.—At Grafton Pond, twenty-three miles from here, on the line of the Montpelier & Wells River railroad, last Saturday afternoon, there was the most destructive fire ever known in Vermont. It originated by burning brush about noon, and the wind blowing a gale, the flames swept everything before them. A large number of houses, live stock and dressed lumber were destroyed, and many families rendered destitute. Loss, $200,000.

VILLAGE BURNED.

BERLIN, May 21.—The village of Marenkirchen was totally destroyed by fire. Even the fruit trees and wooden crosses in the church yards were burned. The entire population of 1500 are homeless.

SPORTING NOTES.

WALLACE DEFEATS VIGNAUX.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Vignaux and Wallace played the thirteenth game of the tournament to-night. The game was very close throughout. Wallace won in the ninetieth inning. Vignaux was but three points behind, but his friends were very much disappointed at his defeat. He was looked upon as sure to win. Score—Wallace, 500; average, 5 50-100; best run, 35. Vignaux, 497; average, 5 41-90; best run, 47.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

The affair of Moses and his reservation has been made the occasion of a vast amount of misrepresentation. The politicians who had a share in the attempt to rob Moses and his people of their land, the crowd who hoped for profit from this crime, and those who from principle or the lack of it, or from habit, cry down the red man without regard to the merits of his cause, have attempted to justify the [illegible] act of the president in restoring part of Moses' reservation to the public domain. Unable to make out a case which could [illegible] respect, with the simple truth, they [illegible] hesitated to misrepresent the facts—[illegible] words, they have lied. They have [illegible] that Moses procured the reservation [illegible] by fraud, in that he falsely assumed to [illegible] the chief of many small bands scattered [illegible] the country and not provided for; that [illegible] refused to live on the reservation [illegible] he is or has been ready to seek re[illegible] on the war path, and that THE OREGO[NIAN] [illegible] represented him; that Moses has [illegible] to Washington; that the number of [illegible] is less than 100, and much other [illegible] of truth as what we have here set [illegible] is not true that Moses claimed to be [illegible] bands, nor did he [illegible] them upon his reservation. THE MORTGAGE TAX.

PORTLAND, Or., May 19, 1883.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

We hear a great deal of late about the mortgage tax law, but I firmly believe that the average taxpayer does not know what it all means. Of course, those who have always made a faithful return of their notes and accounts (under the old law) to the assessor, whether secured by mortgage or not, may not be able to see any change.

Taxpayers have always been required to pay taxes on their loans, with or without mortgage. Are they required to do more than that under the new law? Am I mistaken?

INQUIRER.

It may reasonably be doubted whether there is quite so much simplicity here as the writer would seem to show. Taxpayers have, indeed, always been required by law to return their solvent accounts for taxation, but in most cases either have ignored the requirements or have resorted to methods of evasion. Taxation of credits is an impossibility, because there are infinite ways of escaping it. Recognizing the difficulty, the authors of the new scheme proposed to declare by statute that every mortgage on real estate is real estate, and taxable as such in the county where the land is situated. Most of the mortgages on real estate are held by loaning associations which pay taxes on their capital stock, but have not returned the mortgages for taxation. In many instances, indeed, the mortgages are held outside the state. We are not yet advised as to the scope of the decision recently rendered by the supreme court of the state, since it is not at hand for publication, but if it goes to the extent of declaring that liens upon realty, held by parties resident abroad, have been lawfully converted into real estate and thus given a situs for taxation in Oregon, then there will undoubtedly be an appeal at once to the courts of the United States. The practical effect of the law, however, is this, viz.: Individuals and associations loaning money are declining, as matters stand, to take real estate security, because they can do better with their money than to invest it in a way that will cause it to be taxed to its full value, while property in other forms is assessed at only about one-third of its full value. Some loans, we hear, are, indeed, being made, but on condition that the borrowers pay both interest and taxes; and this is the best that "the poor man," in whose interest this law was enacted, can now do in Portland, and in general throughout the state. Credits will not be taxed. It is useless to attempt it. Every such attempt throws additional burdens upon those whose necessities compel them to borrow money. Just as soon as the mortgagees can do so they will close up outstanding business, in order to get rid of the taxation; and many persons who owe money secured on their lands will very probably be reduced to extremity by the necessity of paying off the mortgages—the power being taken from them by this law of obtaining the money by mortgaging again. The way to make money cheap and plenty for borrowers is to see that the law lets money and credits alone. The United States gets hundreds of millions at 3 per cent, simply by prohibiting all attempts to worry its creditors by taxation. It is not the interest of the money-lender that is to be considered in this matter, but the interest of the great public, whose business cannot be carried on without credits, and who suffer from every scheme or device that makes credits costly or difficult to obtain.

The [illegible] of a certain political [illegible] stick to it that at the [illegible] stage of the discussion, as to who shall be the democratic candidate for the presidency, the name of Samuel J. Tilden has more prominence than any other. They say, too, that his power as a political [illegible] that the party [illegible] in 1880 [illegible] can it surely win in [illegible] that it cannot do without [illegible]. From this it would seem that the democratic party is in rather a bad way. Is there within it but one only man who, [illegible] Mr. Tilden's admirers insist that their party shall look to him alone for deliverance, that it shall "hug the bliss of [illegible]" [illegible] Of course, Mr. Hendricks ought to be "put up" [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] with his [illegible] the [illegible] that [illegible] live and vigorous [illegible] by a rejuvenated democratic party.

The tenth volume of Bancroft's works, being the second volume of the History of Mexico, [illegible] the period from the year 1521 to the year [illegible], has appeared. It covers the period of the conquest of Cortez, and carries the narrative down through a time which brings out the consequences of that great achievement. With more abundant materials than Prescott [illegible] and giving the subject wider range, Bancroft has produced a history which, while it will not compare with Prescott's in graces of style, [illegible] is of highest value for its facts. Three more volumes will bring the history of Mexico and Central America down to the year [illegible]. Great interest will be taken here in the volumes on Oregon, which it is hoped will appear next year. Mr. L. Leadbetter, who represents the author, is now in this city. His mission relates to the publication of the great work, to which everything is brought that industry and money will secure.

Yesterday THE OREGONIAN contained over 20,000 words of telegraphic report, about half of it special news, to which no other paper in the northwest has access. This journal receives and publishes more news than all others in the northwest. It has the entire report of the western associated press, which others have, and in addition has arrangements which enable it to get special news of equal or greater extent, which no other paper can obtain. In proof of this it has only to point to its columns from day to day and week to week. It pays for the associated press report the same as other journals, and expends besides, for special report, much more than itself or any other paper expends for the common one. The only drawback it experiences arises from the inability of the wires at times to carry its news. It is hoped that facilities for larger service will ere long be provided.

The authorities at Washington have looked up the law respecting pauper immigration and find that there is a statute prohibiting the landing of destitute and helpless persons but that no penalty is prescribed for its violation. So practically there might as well be no law at all. But we have no doubt that a protest from our government properly presented to the English government would stop the outrageous exportation of paupers, criminal and malcontents and if that does'nt stop it congress can easily fix a way to do so. In any event we are safe. Oregon is too far away to be used as a dumping ground for Europe's refuse population.

From Sandy Hook to Queenstown the distance is 2800 miles. The steamship Alaska has made this run in six days, eighteen hours and thirty-seven minutes—an average of a little more than seventeen miles an hour. The Normandie, a new French ship to be put on the line to New York, is expected to beat the Alaska badly. During her trial trip she developed over nineteen miles an hour.

Less than half a century ago the Fiji Islands were the dread of mariners, who, when shipwrecked on their dangerous reefs invariably fell prey to cannibals. Forty years ago two Methodist missionaries resolved, at the risk of their lives, to carry the gospel to these savages. Now there are over 800 christian churches, with parochial schools, within the limits of Fiji, and these churches are not only self-supporting, but send out missionaries to other south sea islands, and the Fiji Islands are a regular repairing station for whalers and trading vessels of all kinds.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE.

The affair of Moses and his reservation has been made the occasion of a vast amount of misrepresentation. The politicians who had a share in the attempt to rob Moses and his people of their land, the crowd who hoped for profit from this crime, and those who from principle or the lack of it, or from habit, cry down the red man without regard to the merits of his cause, have attempted to justify the careless act of the president in restoring part of Moses' reservation to the public domain. Unable to make out a case which could demand respect, with the simple truth, they have not hesitated to misrepresent the facts—in other words, they have lied. They have asserted that Moses procured the reservation grant by fraud, in that he falsely assumed to be the chief of many small bands scattered about the country and not provided for; that he indignantly refused to live on the reservation; that he is or has been ready to seek redress on the war path, and that THE OREGONIAN has so represented him; that Moses has asked to go to Washington; that the number of Moses' people is less than 100, and much other stuff as void of truth as what we have here set down. It is not true that Moses claimed to be the chief of the unprovided bands, nor did he undertake to collect them upon his reservation. In fact, their settlement on the reservation was [illegible] made conditional upon Moses' consent. The language of President Hayes' executive orders of 1879 and 1880 are convincing on this point. It is not true that Moses has declined to live on his reservation. He asked the privilege of living on the Nespilem, east of the [illegible], and it was granted him. He also [illegible] that Secretary Schurz promised him [illegible] over the whole Colville reservation, but the papers do not support this claim, [illegible] upon it. He has permitted [illegible] white men to pasture their [illegible] his reservation; but this was done [illegible] contracts approved by the department commander. This was about the [illegible] of support he had for himself and his dependent people, many of [illegible] being employed as herders by [illegible]. It will be seen from this that [illegible] violated his compact with the [illegible] particular. Again it is not [illegible] ready to seek redress [illegible], he has not at any [illegible] hostile disposition, though [illegible] pained at the manifest [illegible] toward him, [illegible] the reservation. [illegible] of the situation of the [illegible] Moses' movements, bear [illegible] good offices. Col [illegible] at Camp Spokane, [illegible] in the reservation, is of [illegible] were prevented by [illegible] Moses' part. Nor is it [illegible] has represented [illegible] war. On the contrary it [illegible] peaceful and prudent [illegible] that Moses has asked to [illegible] if he had, we fail to [illegible] the harm. He re[illegible] the invitation of General [illegible] Vancouver Barracks in[illegible] people that he [illegible] and great blood[illegible] to go to Washington, [illegible] not ask to go. As [illegible] the most trust[illegible] at from 400 to 500, [illegible] of squaws and [illegible] officers now on the [illegible] should begin [illegible] by the disaffected [illegible] could muster a [illegible] desolation over [illegible] Washington. But [illegible] never been feared [illegible] of his people, he [illegible] them or lead them. [illegible] in this matter have [illegible] misrepresentation.

[illegible] TO DUTY.

[illegible] to expect that [illegible] by their [illegible] punctuality and dis[illegible] to a jour[illegible] complain[illegible] of delays in the per[illegible] especially when the [illegible] to respect [illegible] the public [illegible] public duty. [illegible] of this judicial district [illegible]. For this fact [illegible]. But we take it, that [illegible] work, may also [illegible] engaged, namely, the [illegible] be accomplished by [illegible] and finishing up as [illegible] as one goes along, then [illegible], taking matters [illegible] reaching no conclusions, [illegible] pile up with moun[illegible]. Just now the public [illegible] complain of the delay of [illegible] Schneider habeas corpus [illegible] of great importance are [illegible] proceedings in the liquor [illegible] arrested by the delay; large [illegible] are selling liquors without [illegible] losing money at the rate, [illegible] dollars a week, and [illegible] be done till a decision is [illegible] in their present stage, [illegible], apparently, might as well [illegible] to-day in next month, or next [illegible].

[illegible] elsewhere, Mr. Minthorn [illegible] of the Indian training [illegible], denies reports concerning [illegible] of the institution [illegible] gained currency, and [illegible] very interesting facts. [illegible] of the various tribes who at first [illegible] suspicion on the school, have been [illegible] by its three years good work that its [illegible] influence is for the best, and are [illegible] willing to allow their children to at[illegible]. The kindly interest manifested toward [illegible] by the public generally is very gratifying, and Mr. Minthorne says that it will soon [illegible] necessary to establish the school in another [illegible], as the lands now occupied are [illegible] private property of the Pacific [illegible]. By all means a location at or near [illegible] should be secured. The order and [illegible] of the city would have an important [illegible] on the young Indians, while its in[illegible] establishments afford opportunities for [illegible] industrial instruction which can not [illegible] so well elsewhere. And industrial [illegible] is the thing particularly to be de[illegible].

[illegible] Charles Tupper, the Canadian minister of railroads and canals, says confidently that the Canadian Pacific will be completed from end to end by the close of the year 1886. In view of the success of the Northern Pacific, which has shown what can be done by energy and intelligence of the highest order working in combination, the claim of the Canadian Pacific is not an extravagant one. The distance from tide water to tide water by the Canadian Pacific—that is, from Montreal to Port Moody—is 2991 miles. It will be the longest of the Pacific railroads.

It may be doubtful whether it will ever be possible to get a chief of police who will please everybody. Just now we have one who is exceedingly unsatisfactory to prostitutes, [illegible] and certain hoodlum newspapers. Probably on the other hand the man who would please them would be objectionable to a still larger and possibly better class of citizens.

A blunder in proof-reading made us say "Colfax on the Snake river," instead of "north of Snake river, yesterday.

THE MORTGAGE TAX.

PORTLAND, Or., May 18, 1883.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

We hear a great deal of late about the mortgage tax law, but I firmly believe that the average taxpayer does not know what it all means. Of course, those who have always made a faithful return of their notes and accounts (under the old law) to the assessor, whether secured by mortgage or not, may not be able to see any change.

Taxpayers have always been required to pay taxes on their loans, with or without mortgage. Are they required to do more than that under the new law? Am I mistaken?

INQUIRER.

It may reasonably be doubted whether there is quite so much simplicity here as the writer would seem to show. Taxpayers have, indeed, always been required by law to return their solvent accounts for taxation, but in most cases either have ignored the requirements or have resorted to methods of evasion. Taxation of credits is an impossibility, because there are infinite ways of escaping it. Recognizing the difficulty, the authors of the new scheme proposed to declare by statute that every mortgage on real estate is real estate, and taxable as such in the county where the land is situated. Most of the mortgages on real estate are held by saving associations which pay taxes on their capital stock, but have not returned the mortgages for taxation. In many instances, indeed, the mortgages are held outside the state. We are not yet advised as to the scope of the decision recently rendered by the supreme court of the state, since it is not at hand for publication, but if it goes to the extent of declaring that liens upon realty, held by parties resident abroad, have been lawfully converted into real estate and thus given a situs for taxation in Oregon, then there will undoubtedly be an appeal at once to the courts of the United States. The practical effect of the law, however, is this, viz.: Individuals and associations loaning money are declining, as matters stand, to take real estate security, because they can do better with their money than to invest it in a way that will cause it to be taxed to its full value, while property in other forms is assessed at only about one-third of its full value. Some loans, we hear, are, indeed, being made, but on condition that the borrowers pay both interest and taxes; and this is the best that "the poor man," in whose interest this law was enacted, can now do in Portland, and in general throughout the state. Credits will not be taxed. It is useless to attempt it. Every such attempt throws additional burdens upon those whose necessities compel them to borrow money. Just as soon as the mortgagees can do so they will close up outstanding business, in order to get rid of the taxation; and many persons who owe money secured on their lands will very probably be reduced to extremity by the necessity of paying off the mortgages—the power being taken from them by this law of obtaining the money by mortgaging again. The way to make money cheap and plenty for borrowers is to see that the law lets money and credits alone. The United States gets hundreds of millions at 3 per cent. simply by prohibiting all attempts to worry its creditors by taxation. It is not the interest of the money-lender that is to be considered in this matter, but the interest of the great public, whose business cannot be carried on without credits, and who suffer from every scheme or device that makes credits costly or difficult to obtain.

The admirers of a certain political sage stick to it that at the present stage of the discussion, as to who shall be the democratic candidate for the presidency, the name of Samuel J. Tilden has more prominence than any other. They say, too, that his power as a political organizer was never equalled; that the party would have won in 1880 had he been its candidate; that only with him can it surely win in 1884, and, therefore, that it cannot do without him. From this it would seem that the democratic party was in rather a bad way. Is there within it but one only man, and he long ago grown old? Mr. Tilden's admirers insist that their party shall look to him alone for deliverance—that it shall "beg the alms of palsied eld," as a poet's phrase puts it. Then, of course, Mr. Hendricks "ought to be "put up" too. But would the one of these ancient gentlemen with his paralysis and the other with his gouty and gangrenous toe make a ticket that would represent the young, live and vigorous movement promised by a rejuvenated democratic party?

The tenth volume of Bancroft's works, being the second volume of the History of Mexico, and including the period from the year 1521 to the year 1600, has appeared. It covers the period of the conquest of Cortez, and carries the narrative down through a time which brings out the consequences of that great achievement. With more abundant materials than Prescott possessed, and giving the subject wider range, Bancroft has produced a history which, while it will not compare with Prescott's in graces of style, nevertheless is of highest value for its facts. Three more volumes will bring the history of Mexico and Central America down to the year 1800. Great interest will be taken here in the volumes on Oregon, which it is hoped will appear next year. Mr. L. Leadbetter, who represents the author is now in this city. His mission relates to the publication of the great work, to which everything is brought that industry and money will secure.

Yesterday THE OREGONIAN contained over 20,000 words of telegraphic report, about half of it special news, to which no other paper in the northwest has access. This journal receives and publishes more news than all others in the northwest. It has the entire report of the western associated press, which others have, and in addition has arrangements which enable it to get special news of equal or greater extent, which no other paper can obtain. In proof of this it has only to point to its columns from day to day and week to week. It pays for the associated press report the same as other journals, and expends besides, for special report, much more than itself or any other paper expends for the common one. The only drawback it experiences arises from the inability of the wires at times to carry its news. It is hoped that facilities for larger service will ere long be provided.

The authorities at Washington have looked up the law respecting pauper immigration and find that there is a statute prohibiting the landing of destitute and helpless persons but that no penalty is prescribed for its violation. So practically there might as well be no law at all. But we have no doubt that a protest from our government properly presented to the English government would stop the outrageous exportation of paupers, criminal and malcontents and if that doesn't stop it congress can easily fix a way to do so. In any event we are safe. Oregon is too far away to be used as a dumping ground for Europe's refuse population.

From Sandy Hook to Queenstown the distance is 2800 miles. The steamship Alaska has made this run in six days, eighteen hours and thirty-seven minutes—an average of a little more than seventeen miles an hour. The Normandie, a new French ship to be put on the line to New York, is expected to beat the Alaska badly. During her trial trip [illegible] miles an hour.

There are in Ohio 14,000 drinking saloons that have hitherto paid $25 license each year to the United States, but not a cent to the state. By a recently enacted law they will be compelled to pay a state license, the net proceeds of which will be $2,000,000.

An interesting feature of agriculture in California is olive growing. It is thought that the state can easily raise a crop as large as that of Italy which, it is said, sells yearly for $30,000,000. A rich owner at Santa Barbara has made $21,000 an acre from the cultivation of this delectable fruit.

During the recent southern cyclone, a Mississippi mule and a fence all went up among the clouds in company. The mule came down first and landed on his back. The rail followed, and, striking the stomach of the mule, not only went entirely through the animal, but two feet into the ground besides.

Less than half a century ago the Fiji Islands were the dread of mariners, who, when shipwrecked on their dangerous reefs invariably fell prey to cannibals. "Forty years ago two Methodist missionaries resolved, at the risk of their lives, to carry the gospel to these savages. Now there are over 800 christian churches with parochial schools, within the limits of Fiji, and these churches are not only self-supporting, but send out missionaries to other south sea islands, and the Fiji Islands are a regular repairing station for whalers and trading vessels of all kinds.

COMMON SENSE COMPRESSED.

IT IS DIFFICULT TO GIVE IN A DOZEN LINES THE REASONS WHY TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT SHOULD BE PREFERRED AS A CORRECTIVE AND ALTERATIVE TO EVERY OTHER MEDICINE IN USE. FIRSTLY, IT ALLAYS FEVER; SECONDLY, IT CLEANSES THE BOWELS WITHOUT VIOLENCE OR PAIN; THIRDLY, IT TONES THE STOMACH; FOURTHLY, IT REGULATES THE FLOW OF BILE; FIFTHLY, IT PROMOTES HEALTHY PERSPIRATION; SIXTHLY, IT RELIEVES THE SYSTEM FROM UNWHOLESOME HUMORS; SEVENTHLY, IT TRANQUILIZES THE NERVES; EIGHTHLY, IT ACTS UPON THE BLOOD AS A DEPURENT; AND LASTLY, IT FORMS ONE OF THE MOST DELICIOUS COOLING DRAUGHTS THAT EVER PASSED DOWN THE THROAT OF AN INVALID. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Suggestion About Ham Culture.—Large invoices of eastern hams are arriving here. The supply of home-cured is very short, there not being more than a month's supply left, while from four to five months must elapse before any more will be in the market. There is a large quantity of home-cured bacon still on hand here, but there is no market for it at remunerative prices. Our citizens must have ham, and there is a prospect of their having to pay twenty cents per pound for those coming from the east. As ham is so much more in demand than bacon here, it would be a good thing if our farmers could invent a breed of hogs which were chiefly ham. As sheep have been raised to grow tails half as heavy as their bodies, and cattle have been bred which consist principally of cheek, there should be no insuperable difficulty in producing a steatopygous breed of hogs.

They Had To Pay.—Schmidt and Fried, the persons implicated in killing a sick cow and disposing of the meat to a butcher, were up in the police court yesterday. Each had a lawyer employed and strove to lay the blame on the other. The testimony in regard to the matter differed to an alarming extent, and caused the spectators to think that something was done under oath. There really seemed no necessity for so much evidence to attach blame on one man, as there was certainly enough for both. The judge evidently thought so, as he held them both to answer in the sum of $250. By the time the matter has been adjudicated by the circuit court and Prosecuting Attorney Caples has worked the jury in the case Messrs. Schmidt and Fried will begin to think that buying deceased cattle and selling the flesh is not a profitable business.

It will be agreed to. The president is anxious that stalwarts and half breeds should be reconciled without further delay, and he will do everything in his power to compass that end. It is given out here that in either state or city politics during his absence; that he will not attend any conference with local leaders, nor take any action that might render him liable to a charge of interference with party contentions. The president is anxious that party differences in Pennsylvania, as well as in New York, shall be adjusted, and his advice to the representatives of all factions is to unite at once for the heavy work of next year. It is probable that while he is in New York Arthur will see a number of leaders of both the half breed and stalwart factions, and to those who ask his advice it will be freely given. The president favors a Run Over.—About 8 o'clock last evening, as F. W. Stechhan was driving down Second street, his horse, a spirited animal, became alarmed at the music in front of the variety theater and dashed off at a rapid rate, upsetting a Chinaman and dragging the vehicle over him. Stechhan got the animal under control near the police office and informed a policeman that he had driven over a Chinaman and perhaps killed him. Officer Helmberg started to gather up the remains and found that the celestial had been carried to a doctor's office, where it was found that he had been severely bruised about the legs, but no bones were broken. It will now be in order for Stechhan to give the injured man a benefit.

Decreasing the Tax Roll.—The number of persons who have applied to the common council for rebate on their taxes this year is considerable, much larger than usual. Yesterday several new applications were made, based on error alleged to have been made by some official in preparing a transcript. The amount of rebate already allowed has been considerable, and if these new petitions are granted a deficit of some $2000 will be the result. As the tax roll is open for thirty days for revision and correction, and as the fact is advertised it does not seem the correct thing for persons to apply for corrections at this late date.

Rolling Mill Site.—No definite conclusion has been arrived at by the management as to the location of the rolling mills of the Iron and Steel Company. The mills, machine shops, etc., when completed, will use a vast amount of coal—probably 200 tons per day—and, as the article is expensive to handle and also wastes much in being re-shipped, this matter has to be taken into consideration in choosing the site. As it would not be possible to get coal to Oswego without considerable handling, it is scarcely probable that the mills will be built there.

Contract Awarded.—The contract for the erection of the brick building for Hall & Stott, hardware merchants, on the corner of Fourth and J streets, East Portland, was let yesterday. Following were the bids as opened by Noer & LaHohrer, architects: Brokes & Zeller, $13,579. O. A. DeBerg, $15,490. Mr. Campbell, $14,290. J. Becker, $15,891. J. E. Mayo, $14,380. C. O. Blakely, $12,498. Mr. Blakely's being the lowest bid the contract was awarded to him. The building is 50x75 feet and will be three stories in hight above the basement.

Fainted.—Considerable commotion was created at the corner of Second and Alder streets yesterday by the unusual spectacle of a Chinaman fainting on the street. As he was a stout, healthy looking fellow there seemed to be no reason for his fainting, but if it was a ruse to attract a crowd he made a success of it. He was picked up and put into an express wagon, to be taken to the joss-house or some other place of refuge, but the horse balked and it took half an hour to start him. The Chinaman consistently remained in a faint till out of sight.

Portland Boy Dead.—Otis H Beebe, whose death is reported in this morning's dispatches from San Francisco, was a son of the late Edwin Beebe, and previous to leaving for California was employed in the office of Col. J. M. Drake, purchasing agent for the O. R. & N. Co. Otis was a very bright, manly boy, a favorite with class-mates at the Harrison street and high schools, and his untimely death will be regretted by a large circle of friends.

Tickets for the Orchestral Concert.—That the demand for admission to Frey's concert may be as far as possible accommodated, tickets will be on sale for the theater gallery at the stores of D. W. Prentice and S. Harris. The gallery will be thoroughly cleansed and the seats cushioned and every effort made to render it comfortable. As a point of vantage for listening to music the gallery is superior to any in the house.

Grove Meeting.—A grove meeting of spiritualists will be held at New Era, Clackamas county, Oregon, beginning Friday, June 22, and holding over Sunday. Tickets to attend the meeting and return can be had at forty per cent discount at each of the stations of the Oregon and California railroad from Salem north. Good speakers will be in attendance. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

The Alaska Excursion.—The steamship Dakota will leave San Francisco for the Sound June 1, and will proceed thence to Alaska. Passengers from Portland will leave Monday, the 4th proximo, via river, rail and Sound for Victoria, where they will connect with the Dakota. Music for dancing will be provided and everything will be made pleasant for the party.

Knights Templar.—There will be a special meeting of Oregon Commandery No. 1 Knights Templar, at their asylum Masonic Temple, at 7:30 o'clock. Work in the Red Cross degree. Full attendance requested.

BRIEF MENTION.

The Multnomah typographical union will give its first annual picnic at Vancouver on Saturday, June 16.

The sale of the Malarkey property was again postponed yesterday, on account of the absence of Attorney Gearin.

Snake river fell four inches and the Columbia one inch at Ainsworth, yesterday; weather cool. The Willamette here fell half an inch.

The notorious Nancy Boggs' scow has been heard from. It is anchored off Brownsport below Woody Island. Nancy and her crowd have gone into the fishing business and the catch so far has been confined to suckers.

Captain Cyrus Noyes, master of the American bark Coloma, Hongkong to Portland, has written to his agent here to have a tug on the look out for him about the first of next month. The Coloma comes heavily laden with general merchandise.

By last night's train from Walla Walla, there arrived ninety-one passengers, the majority of them being merchants visiting Portland upon business. No better or more conclusive evidence is needed of the fact that Portland is a great trade center.

The roof of Weidler's sawmill caught fire yesterday afternoon from a spark. The blaze was extinguished before any serious damage was done. A still alarm was sent in and the hook and ladder company started for the fire, but hearing that it had been put out, turned about before reaching the mill.

A San Francisco gentleman who arrived by Sunday night's steamer was walking up Second street last night about dusk in company with a Portland friend, and noticing a woman leaning listlessly in a public hallway, remarked: "I wonder what that woman is standing there for?" His companion responded: "I guess she's waiting for Brother Henry."

Col. Frank Parker of the Walla Walla Statesman, who came down yesterday, states that the sand hills along the line between Wallula and the Dalles, which used to present such a bleak, barren appearance, are now covered with a luxuriant growth of flowers of many varieties, which add beauty to the landscape and present a much more cheerful appearance than the original stretches of sand.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ella Wright of Salem, is visiting Miss Cora Baker in this city.

Mrs. Captain S. M. Donnell and son of this city, arrived in Boston on the 14th inst.

Sam. T. Bernhard, representing L. P. Fontaine & Co., of San Francisco, is in the city.

Steve Chadwick, George Wright and Ed. Cross of Salem, who have been attending college in San Francisco are passengers on the incoming steamer.

J. H. Thatcher, for several years manager of the Western Union Telegraph office but lately with the Northern Pacific railroad, has been appointed superintendent of the telephone company and will take charge June 1.

MEMORIAL CHURCH SERVICE.

Headquarters Memorial Day Committee,
Grand Army of the Republic,
Portland, May 22.

The committee has made preparations for memorial services to be held at the M. E. church, corner Taylor and Third streets, in this city, on Sunday evening, May 27. Post commanders are requested to issue the necessary orders for the assembling of their posts at their respective headquarters at 7:15 M. sharp.

Posts should be at the church at 7:30 P. M. All comrades are invited to attend. By order of the committee. E. M. [illegible], Secretary.

HON. JACOB VOORHEES SHOT.

Marion County's Senator Assailed by a Discharged Farm Hand and Receives Three Dangerous Wounds.

Salem, Or., May 21—8 P. M.—[Special.]—News was received here this evening of the shooting of Hon. Jacob Voorhees, state senator from this county, at his home about two miles from Woodburn. It seems that a farm hand J. R. W. Cannon, who was in his employ, was discharged this morning. He went to Gervais, where he purchased a revolver, and returned to Voorhees' residence, shot him three times in quick succession, two shots taking effect in his head and the third in his body, inflicting wounds from which it is generally conceded he cannot recover. Dr. [illegible] of this city was at once telegraphed for and [illegible].

Cannon is described as a man about 24 years of age, 5 feet 10, light weight, dark hair, light eyes, scar on lower part of face and wearing a pair of overalls. Intense excitement prevails in this city, where Voorhees was well and favorably known both as a public man and private citizen. Sheriff Baker left Gervais in search of the man who did the shooting. [illegible] of Voorhees [illegible], but he was alive at last [illegible].

LATER ACCOUNT.

Salem, May 21—[illegible] P. M.—Voorhees is not expected to live. [illegible] the shot struck him under the right eye [illegible] Another shot struck him in the right side [illegible] was extracted. The third struck him in the right shoulder and is not yet found. Voorhees is conscious, and hopes are entertained that he may pull through.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Woodburn, May 21—11 P. M.—[Special.]—Hon. Jacob Voorhees, senator from Marion county, was shot three times this evening by a man he discharged in the morning. The first shot entered about one inch above the mouth to the right of the nose. The ball is supposed to be lodged under the left ear. After Voorhees was down the assassin shot him twice, once in the right shoulder, the ball lodging near the back bone, and once in the body, making a flesh wound six inches deep. No arrest has yet been made. A posse is in search.

THE FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION

Committee Meeting Last Night—An Outline of the Programme—Funds Needed.

The committee of arrangements for the reunion of the veterans of the late war and celebration of our national anniversary held a meeting last evening. Posters have been prepared and issued outlining the programme of exercises, which contains many interesting features. Six or eight bands will furnish the music for the occasion. Instructive and entertaining orations may be expected at the grand camp fire, to be held on the evening of July 3, at the camping ground. Guard mount, salutes, inspection and parades, orations by distinguished gentlemen, a grand procession and a brilliant display of fireworks, will form the chief features on the Fourth of July. In addition to the exercises upon the 4th of July, it is understood that the Veteran Guard purpose giving an exhibition drill, promenade concert and ball at the Mechanics' pavilion on the evening of that day.

The following letter from Gen. Morrow was read:

Vancouver Barracks, W. T.,
May 1, 1883.

A. E. Borthwick, Esq., Sec. G. A. R. reunion, etc.:

Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 30th inst., informing me that I have been elected a member and made "chairman of the committee on camp grounds and camp equipage," in connection with the proposed celebration of the Fourth of July and reunion of the members of the Grand Army of the Republic of Oregon and Washington territory, on the 3d, 4th and 5th days of that month. It will give me pleasure to co-operate with your committee, though I must decline the chairmanship, on account of my inability to be present with you as often as I should like at your meetings. The proposed celebration and reunion have my entire sympathy, and shall have all the aid I can extend in promoting its success. With the known energy and liberality of the people of Portland there can be no doubt about making this the grandest popular demonstration ever seen in the northwest. I am not authorized to speak for the department commander, now absent from this section of the country, but his well-known patriotic impulses warrant me in saying that you will have his aid, to the extent of his power, in making the celebration brilliant and imposing. I am, sir, your obedient servant,
HENRY A. MORROW,
Colonel U. S. A.

It is the intention of the committee to make the coming celebration an occasion to be long and favorably remembered. They will leave nothing undone to make it an honor and a credit to the city; but they will be seriously hampered unless the funds are forthcoming to defray the expenses of this great undertaking.

Aside from the pleasure afforded the entire population by the various features of the celebration, all departments of business will profit by the presence of the crowd of visitors who will throng our streets during the three days, and it is to be hoped that the citizens and business men will respond liberally to the calls of the finance committee.

SALEM NOTES.

[From the Oregonian's Local Correspondent.]

Salem, May 21.

Mrs. Dr. W. H. Byrd is lying dangerously ill at her home in the city.

The weather is lovely with indications of remaining so for a day or two at least.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Holt is lying dangerously ill at their residence in this city.

H. A. Cornell has the contract for building Frank N. Gilbert's new residence in this city, which insures a first-class job.

Gideon Stolz has purchased the residence formerly owned and occupied by Judge Boise, just west of the university campus grounds, paying therefor the sum of $3000.

An old gentleman named Tucker was brought into the city yesterday a raving maniac. His home is near Abiqua in this county, and he will probably be taken to the asylum to-day.

No. 2's had their new Silsby steamer out Saturday evening and it worked like a charm. They intend contesting with any and all steamers that may come to the front during the first burning fire tournament in this city.

Governor Moody has recently appointed the following notaries public: W. L. Bradshaw of Lafayette; Henry Warren and J. H. Magers, McMinnville; L. S. Wood, Weston; W. G. Brown, Salem; Andrew McKenzie, E. T Howes and Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Portland.

Gaines Fisher, our enterprising livery man, has just completed and opened his new stable opposite the Chemeketa hotel in this city. It is the finest establishment of the kind in the state, outside of Portland, and is indeed a credit to the city as well as the proprietor.

Quite a number of our citizens are evincing interest and pride in fine stock of various kinds. A number of our gentlemen are driving fine horses, while others indulge their tastes in cattle, swine and poultry. The inquiries after Jersey cows are numerous, and several choice animals are owned in the city. Marion county will soon take the lead in fine stock.

CHANGE OF LOCATION

John C. Mortimer, proprietor of the Portland Blank Book Manufactory, and the leading bookbinder of Portland, has removed his machinery to the old and reliable establishment of A. G. Walling, where he will in the future be found. Mr. Mortimer returns thanks for the many favors shown him while in business in Washington street and hopes to see his numerous friends in his new quarters. The addition of Mr. Mortimer's blank-book and book-binding machinery (the most perfect in the world) to Mr. Walling's extensive establishment, will make it one of the finest in the northwest. It is the leading and only establishment in Portland that can undertake the largest and most complicated orders in lithographing, map engraving, engraving of buildings and views, blank book manufacturing, book binding, paper ruling, job printing, publishing, poster and label printing, stereotyping, and have the whole done in one building. The saving of time incurred thereby, and the certainty of having all work done when promised, is of great value to all business men.

TEN YEARS' IMPRISONMENT.

THE FOUR INDIANS WHO KILLED MULHEREN SENTENCED.

Brief Review of the Case by Judge Deady, Before Passing Sentence. How Whisky Figured in the Crime.

On Tuesday, May 15, the Umatilla Indians who killed Charles Mulheren were tried in the U. S. circuit court before Judge Deady with a jury composed of the following persons:

Hardy Fluff, John Ellis, T. B. Blackerby, B. K. Riley, Jason B. Estes, William Pollard, T. M. Hines, William Knott, James Blakely, Albert Harrington, Peter Lane and Joseph H. Reilly, and found guilty of manslaughter.

The prosecution was conducted by Hon. James F. Watson, U. S. district attorney, and the defense by Mr. J. J. Balleray of Pendleton.

On Monday morning, May 21, the Indians were brought up for sentence. In giving judgment against the prisoners Judge Deady made the following statement of the case, at the same time that he dwelt upon the [illegible] of the public as the prosecutors.

You, Ah Hote, Capsula, Petenas and Tinnausa, Indians of the Umatilla reservation, have been indicted by the grand jury of the District of Oregon for the crime of murder, committed by killing one Charles Mulheren, on November 22, 1882 on the Umatilla Indian reservation, in Umatilla county, Oregon, and tried by this court with a jury of the district, and after a fair trial, in which you had the benefit of an able defense, have been found guilty of the crime of manslaughter.

It appears from the evidence, consisting almost wholly of the confession of Ah Hote and the testimony of West Snoot, the latter of whom was discharged from the indictment by the district attorney and allowed to become a witness for the government, that on November 20, 1882, you were in the town of Pendleton, and on returning to the reservation and about two miles from Pendleton you fell in with the deceased, a stranger in these parts, who had just come there from a distance, probably Montana, and was camped with some horses on the reservation, contrary to law, but for what particular purpose does not appear.

From him you learned that he had been hunting four horses that had strayed away, whereupon it being mentioned that some of you had seen some horses on your way that morning to Pendleton, that you thought belonged to him, the deceased employed you to find his horses, for which he agreed to give you two bottles of whisky. Towards dusk you brought the horses back to him and demanded your pay. You had brought with you from Pendleton two quart bottles of whisky that had been sold to you there contrary to law, by some one who is morally responsible, in a great degree, for what followed.

The deceased refused to pay you for bringing in his horses, and accused you of having stolen them and hid them for the purpose of getting pay for finding them, and tried to put you off by telling you to come back next day and he would get you some whisky. You were then considerably under the influence of the whisky that you had obtained at Pendleton, most of which you had drunk, and refused to leave without some compensation, and demanding $2 for saying that you had had whisky enough. Thereupon the deceased peremptorily and angrily ordered you off, at the same time using gross and opprobrious epithets to you, and drew a large-sized revolver from his side. You were altogether unarmed, except that Capsula had a whip with a heavy wooden handle made from the spoke of a wagon wheel. When the deceased drew the pistol, Petenas sprang forward from the rear of the deceased and grasped it, saying, "Don't use it." West Snoot then interfered and took the pistol from both of them. The deceased then picked up a rock, when Capsula hit him with the handle of his whip, and West Snoot struck him on the head with the butt of the pistol and fractured his skull and probably knocked him down. Then, apparently for fear of discovery and punishment for what was done, you all set upon the deceased and cruelly beat him to death, and then putting a rope around his neck and fastening it to the horn of one of your saddles some of you dragged his body a distance of about 200 yards to the river and secreted it in the water under a drift—first taking $33 from his pocket and dividing it among you.

In a day or two the body floated free from the drift and lodged on some rocks where it was soon discovered.

Sundry papers, accounts and letters were found on the body of the deceased from which it appeared that his name was Charles Mulheren, and that he led a wandering life and was at times probably engaged in trapping. The sum of $250 was found on his person, in addition to what you took from his pocket and a bond of a Cass county in some western state for some small sum, payable to Charles Mulheren, which his administrator has since collected.

After nearly five hours of deliberation the jury have found you guilty of manslaughter, there being eight for that verdict and four for murder on the first ballot.

As the world goes it is hardly possible that a verdict for a crime of any higher grade would have been found, if the accused had been white men; and you are equal before the law to any man whatever his race or color.

The killing was the result of an unpremeditated quarrel, so far as you are concerned, in which the deceased was first wholly in the wrong, but you, heated with whisky and angered by the defendant's conduct, rendered evil for evil until you were led to imbrue your hands in the blood of a fellow creature.

For this unlawful and wicked act the law of the United States provides that you "shall be imprisoned not exceeding ten years and fined not exceeding $1,000." 18 Stat 473.

After a careful consideration of the facts of the case, I am well-satisfied with the verdict of the jury, that you are guilty of manslaughter only. Consideration for the accused is never more becoming in the administration of justice than when the ignorant and helpless are in the hands of the intelligent and powerful.

But although you are only guilty of manslaughter, it is, in some respects, an aggravated case of that crime. The struggle was prolonged after the deceased was helpless and the manner of killing was brutal. And although the affray took place upon your own (rather country) and the first killing was induced as much by fear of the consequences of what you had already done as passion or ill will, yet these aggravating circumstances cannot be overlooked in meting out due punishment for the act.

The judgment of the court is that you and each of you be imprisoned for the period of ten years and pay a fine of $1; and that this sentence, so far as said imprisonment is concerned, until otherwise ordered by this court be executed by confinement in the penitentiary of Oregon, according to the law and regulations concerning persons imprisoned therein.

Ah Hote is 37 years of age, is married and has one child—a girl. Capsula is 26 years of age, is married and has one child—a boy. Petenas is 27 years of age, is married and has two children—a girl and a boy. Tup[illegible] is 30 years of age but is not married. Ah Hote speaks the jargon and some English, and is a fine looking man. The others speak no English and but little jargon.

ALBANY NOTES.

[From the Oregonian's Local Correspondent.]

Albany, May 21.

Wesley Ball of Tangent is visiting friends in the city.

The fire boys are slow in practicing for the coming tournament at Salem.

Horace Bobb is confined to his bed with a severe attack of the measles.

Van Mansfield, editor of the Benton Leader, spent last Sunday in this city.

Mrs. Montgomery was severely ill several days last week with heart disease.

Wallis Nash passed through the city last Saturday on his way home from Portland.

F. M. Redfield recently purchased the brick building now occupied by his grocery store.

Mr. John Jones and daughter returned last Thursday from an extended visit through the eastern states.

A game of base ball is talked of between the Brook and Forest company and Albany Right company Rock, both of this city.

A society Sunday school convention will be held in the United Presbyterian church in this city, commencing June 13, and lasting two days.

Last Friday surveyors started from Corvallis to survey the route for the proposed extension of the Westside railroad from Corvallis to Junction City.

The return game of base ball between the Albany and Corvallis clubs was played yesterday in this city, and resulted in a victory for the Albany boys. [illegible]

At a meeting of the citizens held last Saturday night it was decided to celebrate the coming Fourth in Albany in grand style. Committees were appointed and all the necessary steps taken.

Workmen are engaged in enlarging the cemetery. When the improvements are completed it will contain about two acres more ground than at present. A new fence is being built around the enclosure and it will be otherwise beautified.

Miss Ella Langdon, who has been in this city several months a guest of her brother, L. W. Langdon, left on the outgoing steamer for California, where she will remain several weeks, after which she will return to her home in the east.

Fred Graf of the firm of Graf & Froman has been confined to his room for several weeks with typhoid fever. For a time it was feared he could not live, but during the past few days he has been improving slowly and hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Albany Farmers' Company held in this city Tuesday, May 15, the following named directors were elected to serve during the ensuing year: S. A. Dawson, A. S. Powell, D. Mansfield, F. Parton, L. C. Marshall, H. D. Crawford and G. F. Simpson. The newly elected board are now considering the question of building large flouring mills here during the coming summer.

At last Albany talks woolen mills in earnest. Last week a company was organized, to be known as "The Albany Woolen Mills Company," and articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state. The capital stock is $50,000, divided into 500 shares of $100 each, and the incorporators are eighteen of Albany's most substantial citizens. Stock books will be opened immediately, and it is the intention to build the mills during the coming summer and fall.

The inhabitants of Yaquina bay have been rejoicing over the entry at that harbor of a 706 ton vessel loaded with 600 tons of general merchandise. On the return trip to San Francisco she took 450,000 feet of timber. Your correspondent was informed by Mr. Nash that on the next trip of the vessel to the bay she will bring two locomotives and 300 tons of railroad iron. That, as a straw, shows whether or not it is the intention to build the road.

One day last week while Mr. Ross' little girl was playing about their premises, she found a medal, which had the appearance of having been lost for some time. The medal was about the size of a half-dollar, solid silver, and on one side had the inscription, "Second Best Shot, J. G.;" on the other side was inscribed, "W. B. C., May 9, 1860." Mention of the finding was made on the street, and many persons told of early matches at shooting, and some even went so far as to endeavor to remember the names of winning marksmen, none, however, suiting the initials, "W. B. C." The mystery was finally solved by W. B. Cundiff coming to the front and claiming the medal. He stated that it was won by him in a shooting match in Missouri, in which 100 men took part, all being members of the Jackson Guards, for which "J. G." on the medal stands. He was very happy to secure the lost treasure, and stated that it was stolen from his bed room over five years ago. At the same time a valuable gold watch belonging to his wife being taken.

"Ladies of all ages who suffer from loss of appetite, from imperfect digestion, low spirits and nervous debility may have life and health renewed and indefinitely extended by the use of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies for all complaints incident to the female constitution. We have not only a living faith in Mrs. Pinkham, but we are assured that her medicines are at once most agreeable and efficacious.

Ambitious Hatton.

Springfield Republican.

Since Hatton went into the postoffice department in October, 1881, sixteen postoffices have been named after him. He needs eight more to equal Lincoln and Garfield, and he will no doubt get them. As the record stands he is a "bigger man than old Grant," with only thirteen postoffices bearing his name.

LUNDBORG'S RHENISH COLOGNE.

A Chicago critic says of Mr. Pratt's new opera "Zenobia," just brought out there by local talent, that he has "grappled with a theme that few composers would dare tackle." The fine shades of artistic and literary criticism in this extract are most happy. Some crude critics who had learned their art in a blacksmith shop or in running a derrick would have said he "clamped on to a theme that few composers would have dared to grab or even clutch by the tail."—Detroit Free Press.

Wolfesville, N. C.—Dr. I. O. McLaugh in says:—"I used Brown's Iron Bitters for vertigo and now feel like a new man."

An English correspondent at Gibraltar telegraphs that slaves are sold publicly in the streets, a few yards from the English legation at Tangier, for from $22 to $40.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

A Disgusting Exhibition

CHICAGO May 21 —The News says Jere Dunn succeeded in creating a small sensation at the Grand Opera house last evening The play was Monte Christo and James O'Neill was in the midst of a scene of frenzy and the immense audience were almost breathless with intense interest when there was a slight stir in the lobby and it was whispered [illegible] Dunn, who killed Elliott The crowd parted and Nick Roberts manager of the company, marched in followed by Jere Dunn carrying his head mighty high Through the packed people marched this precious pair to the choicest seats in the theater in the lower right-hand opera-box The crowd in the lobby looked with wonderment. Did Jere Dunn sit with his back to the audience, screened by crimson plush drapery? No he crowded to the very front of the bar, gazed over a distance and sat there with the air of a king Meanwhile ugly whispers passed around among the crowd and inquiries were made for the manager to come in Wonderment was expressed as to whether or not he knew how Nick Roberts had dared to insult the magnificent audience by the parade of Jere Dunn At the close of the second act Roberts and Dunn again paraded through the audience and finally passed out into the street Intense indignation was expressed on all sides Hamlin has doubtless lost many patrons

Egan Condemns the Pope

CHICAGO, May 21 —At a meeting of the third ward land league of this city yesterday, several speakers denounced the action of the Roman church policy a patriotic melody appearing to voice the sentiment of the 400 present to judge by the applause When the pope becomes a politician he should be treated as such, said Patrick Egan ex treasurer of the Irish land league touching upon the warning to the Irish clergy from the vatican I can only look upon it in the light of an insult to the common cause of the Irish people and so it will be regarded in Ireland The speaker declared that a few years ago, when the papacy was considered in danger thousands of Ireland's sons readily shed their blood in its defense and the speaker was among those enlisted for Emigration to Italy to the papacy went

The Deadwood Flood

BISMARCK D T May 21 —Tribune specials give additional facts as to the flood at Deadwood The heavy snow and flood reported some days ago in a dispatch from Stevenson was at Deadwood Additional rain had fallen almost every day for a month making roads impassable and saturating the ground with water. This was followed by a heavy fall of snow, which disappeared rapidly under a heavy, warm rain Friday afternoon and Saturday The gulches or valleys in the hills are from [illegible] feet to probably a quarter of a mile wide
